The emblem selected for Northwest Classen High School by the students and faculty is the Order of Saint George, one of the most ancient and honorable Orders of Knighthood ever instituted. Some of the greatest personages recorded in history have been enrolled as members of the Most Noble Order of St. George. This Order was founded by King Edward III in 1350.

The star was devised in the second year of King Charles the First Reign. The rays surrounding the Badge form the star, which has been known since as the Order of the Garter.

Miss Jo Ann Garrison, a member of the first graduating class, made the adaptation from an original design, using purple and gold, colors symbolic of Nobility, Achievement and Victory.

The significance of the emblem has inspired the Title of Knights and Ladies for the Northwest Classen students.

BOARD OF EDUCATION—Mr. C. B. McCray; Mrs. L. D. Melton; Mr. Jim Wright, President; Mr. Phil Bennett, Vice President; Mr. Otto Thompson.

MANY OF THE THINGS THAT THRILL the pride of Northwest Classen Knights and Ladies are directly due to the efforts and patience of our dedicated assistant principal, Mr. Lloyd M. Estes. It was he that suggested our sobriquet and it is because of his unrelenting awareness that we remain worthy of its implications. Being godfather to 2,000 students is an onerous task. Yet Mr. Estes is never too busy to see a student who needs him. In addition to his administrative duties, Mr. Estes sponsors the law enforcing body of the student population, the Proctor System, which he founded. The Bar Association, Proctor Court and Proctor Supreme Court are parts of the organization. He also trains the CSS Engineers, who operate the intercommunication system. His fair play and straightforwardness make him popular with students and faculty alike.

MR. LLOYD M. ESTES

OUR FACULTY Makes Northwest Classen

COUNSEL MAKETH A MAN ABLE. Indeed student's problems resolve themselves with the aid of Miss Retha Wave Hulet, girl's counselor; Mr. A. A. Johnson, freshman counselor; Mr. George Brucher, boy's counselor; Miss Inez Ellis, counselor in charge of tests and other devices for discovering aptitudes. The notion that teen-agers don't like advice is gainsaid by the popularity of the counsellor offices.

IT BEHOOVES A MAN TO KNOW HIS NEIGHBORS. World knowledge comes first hand to many of our social studies teachers. Most recent globe-trotting for the bunch was that done by Miss Ophelia Byars this past summer. Courses in American and World History, Government and World Problems are popular with Northwest Classen students. One year of American History is required, but World History is optional. However the classes are packed and many have to revise schedules to other courses. Miss Byars, Mr. Don Van Pool, Miss Gladys Shepard, Mr. Clay Davis, Mrs. Dorothy Peale and Mr. Duane Weinert have assembled in the Oklahoma Room of the library to do some research and refreshing on facts of Oklahoma History preparatory to questions that may be asked during the State's Semi-Centennial Celebration this spring.

an Infinitely Different School.

DATES, DEATHS AND DISASTERS are not the sum and substance of History. Miss Blanche Holland stimulates discussions by the use of maps, field trips, films, current events, and reports. Miss Holland also teaches psychology.

WANT TO PLAN A TRIP TO THE MOON? Well, now that might be asking for a little bit more than they could handle—just on a moments notice that is! If it can be scheduled these two super-planners can get the job done. Miss Kathleen Owen is our Activities Director. Mr. Jack Roblyer, teaches History; coaches basketball; and sponsors the Student Council.

MAKING MATHEMATICS INTERESTING is important to Mr. Rodney St. Dizier, '56-'57 department head. Miss Mary Pruitt stops in for a discussion of class procedures. Mr. St. Dizier holds to Geometry. Miss Pruitt adds a class in Trig. She is junior class sponsor and member of the Planning Committee. Mr. St. Dizier sponsors the amateur radio group and co-sponsors the aviation club.

IT ALL ADDS UP TO an expansive geometric design Mrs. Nellie B. Ecton demonstrates to Mr. Rex Irwin. Mrs. Ecton specializes in teaching Algebra. She is a co-sponsor of Coronets, girl's pep club and a representative to OCCTA. Mr. Irwin sandwiches math classes between his duties as head football coach and track mentor. He thinks math a good proving ground for athletes.

They Unlock Our Faith and Inspire Us

IF YOU CAN'T FIGURE, YOU DON'T COUNT. An opportunity to get a solid background in math for any career is offered at Northwest Classen. The importance of math has never waned in our curriculum offerings. Its place in helping students acquire understanding and skills necessary to the highest personal development of the individual goes unchallenged. Miss Margaret Thompson, Miss Mary Wedding, Miss Julia Denny, Mr. Jean Finnell, Mrs. Mary Jane Mooney and Mr. Soce Lewis convene in the planning room to discuss departmental matters.

WHEN IT COMES TO EXTRA-CURRICULAR duties, faculty members indulge, too. Miss Audrie Alberts, Spanish teacher, helps keep the school scrapbook; is representative to OCCTA and sponsors National Honor Society. Mr. Virgil E. Caldwell teaches German and Spanish, sponsors the German Club; is on the Classics Board; and does reporting for THE PIPE-LINE, OCCTA official bulletin. Miss Inez Ellis, in charge of Tests and Measurements, teaches Spanish, directs the audio-visual aids program and co-sponsors Future Teachers of America. Miss Henrietta Von Tungeln teaches Spanish, and enjoyed a tour of Spain this summer. She is a freshman class sponsor; sponsors Honor Language; and is an OCCTA representative.

to Accept Challenges. We Proudly

"SO MANY MEN, SO MANY MINDS." Students enjoy the study of foreign language because it widens appreciation of cultures other than our own. Association of the language with the thinking of foreign peoples, enhances research into customs and traditions peculiar to a nationality and imparts a feeling of being cosmopolitan. Language students realize the oneness of today's world. They value contributions others have made to our way of living.

The American Field Service program, which sponsors teenagers on summer tours to foreign countries where they live three months as a "foster" child with a foreign family, has stimulated interest in foreign language. Eligibility includes having had two years study of a foreign language. The Foreign Exchange Student program also encourages interest.

ETERNALLY FEMININE! Regardless of the mode women are fashion conscious. Miss Lucille Willoughby and Miss Lelia Pickard are admiring French fashions "ancien regime." Miss Willoughby teaches Latin and is senior class sponsor. Miss Pickard teaches French. She is a sophomore class sponsor, co-sponsors Honor Language; and is working to obtain a charter for an Honor French group.

TODAY'S SUDDEN ALL-OUT AWARENESS of things scientific did not startle our science department into action. Science scholarships, national recognition and awards are traditional with our instructors and students. Science and math, basic to the many phases of engineering, are much sought courses by Northwest Classen students, since so many of our graduates head toward those fields. For others it provides training for an adequate life in a fast changing world.

Mr. J. H. Conger teaches Physics and Aeronautics. Mr. Carl Shafer, teaches Chemistry. Mr. Marion M. Jamison, has Geology and General Science. Mrs. Geraldine Buzbee handles Biology and Natural Science. Mr. Wesley Sullivan combines his teaching into Biology and Chemistry. Mr. John Paden directs Research Science and teaches Biology. Conducting an annual Science Fair is a significant departmental project that has led to important scientific discoveries.

Record for Posterity Events That

'WHAT SHALL I BE WHEN I GROW UP?' Throughout high school this is a vital question in most students thinking. To discover facts about different occupations is the purpose of Distributive Education and Diversified Occupations departments. On-the-job supervision is an important part of

of the training available to students seriously exploring probable future careers. Miss Beth West heads the Distributive Education program and Mr. John Standridge directs the activities covered in Diversified Occupations.

AN EDUCATION WITHOUT BENEFIT of ability to express oneself effectively in written or spoken word would be little better than illiteracy. No doubt much that English teachers require seems pretty stuffy at the time. But there comes a day in everyone's life when he wishes he knew more of the items stressed by his English teachers. Competitive writing contests, creative writing courses, films and recordings, along with book reviews, spur interest and give those who have ability beyond the demands of the routine courses opportunities to apply their talents. One of the best manned departments in the school each teacher has a speciality. Mrs. Hazel Livingston is department head '56-57. Left to right Mrs. Madge Mills; Miss Marjorie Miller; Miss Helen Bourke; Miss Della Link; Mrs. Hazel Livingston; Mrs. Mabel Park. Standing: Miss Katherine Gibson; Mr. Charles Kerr; Miss Ann Whitehead; Mrs. Gerrie Milburn.

Make 1956-57 Forever Memorable.

JOURNALISM IS FOR THE STOUTHEARTED! Students soon learn that in addition to being able to work with others on a team basis, that fortitude, ambition, tact and dependability are essential for the job of producing acceptable student publications. Three year service awards, OCIPA and Quill and Scroll are available for those who qualify for staff positions on THE SHIELD or the ROUND TABLE. Mrs. Nevva Sartin is publications director. A course in Advertising was added to the journalism department this year.

SPEECH DEPARTMENT ACHIEVEMENTS are perhaps the most numerous academic awards garnered by NWC Knights and Ladies. Speech tournaments begin early and last throughout the school year. Trophies pop up with regularity. The repertory is resplendent with the art of fine conversation to challenging dramatic interpretations. This year saw the production of Julius Caesar. Duties in the department are shared by Miss Lanora Owens, debate and speech; Mr. Ted Nichols stage craft and debate; Mrs. Rose Marie Cherry, speech and Little Theatre.

MUSIC IS A TERRIFIC FORCE among NWC students. Both instrumental and vocal departments are filled with determined souls who are not intimidated by zero hour requirements. Their efforts are sincerely enjoyed by their less musical classmates. THE CLASSICS, annual student production, reflects the high standards of interpretation gained under the exacting tutelage of choral director Mr. Frank Vitale and the baton precision of maestro Arthur Johnson. Numerous city-wide, county, state, regional and national competitions find NWC Knights emerging with top ratings.

May We Reflect Steadfastness Needed

ART IS A VARIOUS offering and appeals to a variety of students—some serious, some hoping for an easy grade. All find it meaningful and many who enter indifferently discover fascinating activities through which they find themselves. Free hand sketching, fashions, commercial art, oil, ceramics, metal enameling, illustrating and weaving are offered. Miss Mary Lamb Lewis and Mrs. Winnie Murray direct the activities of the department and sponsor the organizations which supplement regular courses.

PRECISION, PERSPECTIVE, PERSISTENCE are principles consistent with mechanical drawing. Taught by Mr. Alonzo Norwood, students planning careers in industrial engineering find the training in graphic designing indispensable. Whether planning to build a bridge or a bird house, it's important to know how to read blue prints. For students interested in commercial advertising there is much profit in the art of understanding blue prints and engineering instructions.

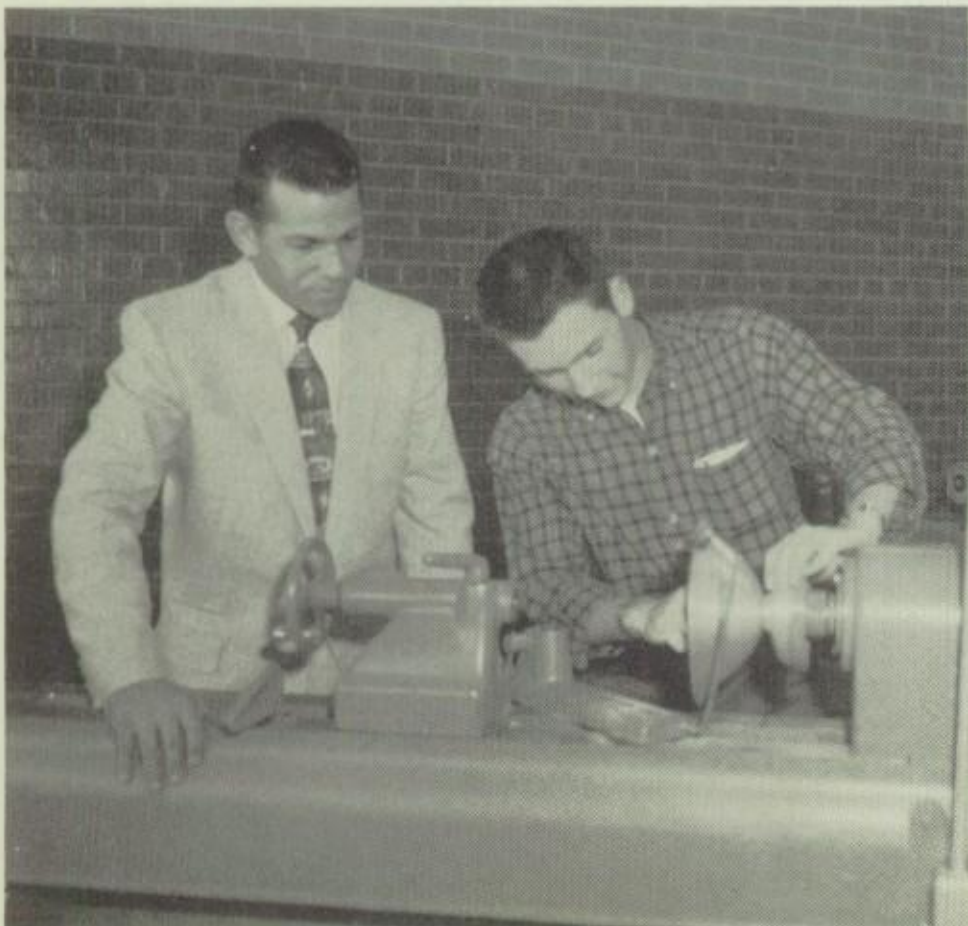

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT. Chattering typewriters chiseling words and the whirr of business machines hold fascination for a large segment of NWC students. Exacting skills and precision help learners to become earners and stand efficient students in good stead of aid toward realizing college educations or careers. Mr. Clark Cunningham, '56-'57 department head teaches Bookkeeping and Commercial Law. Miss Mildred Holland specializes in Shorthand. Mr. Alvin Bryan, whose Special Assignments, such as Safety Patrolling, consume the major portion of his time and effort, conducts a class in Junior Business Training and teaches Typing. Mrs. Evelyn Findly sticks strictly to Typing 2. Mrs. Maxine Tyler varies her offerings with Typing, Shorthand, Penmanship and Spelling. Mrs. Ivy Copeland directs Commercial Occupations and on-the-job training. She teaches Office Practices and Machine Bookkeeping. Mr. Gene Loftis teaches Business English, Shorthand and Typing 4.

of Tomorrow's Leaders. And Be

"IT IS THEIR CARE THAT THE WHEELS RUN TRULY." Becoming an artisan requires a knack not possessed by everyone. A sense of proportion, balance, design and imagination are evident in every pleasing piece of handicraft. Artcrafts, tooled and hand-turned and woodworking are a real opportunity for self-expression for students who have ability in manual dexterity. Mr. Leonard Marcotte's workers take pride in creating beautiful pieces of metal and leather work. Mr. Maurice Ghormley's students fashion all manner of woodwork items. The boys may not be able to build a house but they can build bloomin' near everything that a house houses.

"AS THE TWIG IS BENT," is the basic theory of learning to drive under direction of Mr. Paul Crowe, safety engineer, who instills NWC drivers with driver responsibility.

KNOW HOW based on know why underlies the training in Auto Mechanics, taught by Mr. Charles Hale. Care of shop and shop equipment are an important part of the training.

Worthy of the Sacrifices and Devotion

THERE'S NEVER A DULL MOMENT for Mrs. Nola Moore, R.N. and her staff of Nurse Aides. A routine day in the clinic accepts 10 to 15 "bed" patients or dismisses them to go home. Imaginary illness leads some 50 to 75 in for an aspirin or a dab of mercurochrome. Lost and found items are stashed there. Then there's the annual rounds of flu shots for faculty members, basketball players and wrestlers. The TB mobile unit ran 1200 chest x-rays through; dental inspection for the entire ninth grade; and 734 polio shots were administered.

If there's nothing else it's ID pictures, or locker inspections. In an emergency the clinic could convert school facilities (tables & c) into a functional first aid ward that could care for the entire school population of Northwest Classen.

Mrs. Moore with her staff of aides, Carol Black, Marian Matthews, Jan McCulla, and Karen Moran, pause to find out what's going on by reading THE SHIELD.

THE HEARTH IS THE HEART of today's society. Northwest Classen enjoys one of the finest homemaking departments in any high school in the land. An entire five-room dwelling is incorporated in the building. Here girls may have practical experience in home management. Homemaking is more than learning the cook-sew-dust routine. Finished homemakers emerge with well rounded personalities, intelligent interests and an appreciation of their individual civic responsibilities. Mrs. Edna Hedges supervises Foods and teaches Child Guidance. Mrs. Ramah Miller teaches Clothing and Home Nursing.

"INFINITE RICHES IN A LITTLE SPACE." No truer words were ever said of books. Life to have depth and purpose, must have an ideal to cherish, some great personality to imitate. Many a man's destiny has been shaped by the ideas and ideals found between the words were ever said of books. An invitation to reading is enhanced by the attractiveness of our library. Wide tables, comfortable chairs, perfect lighting, and the open shelves where a student may browse for a selection, make an hour spent in the library a tonic for dispelling a days rough spots.

Miss Eunice Cockrum and Mrs. Alma Doughty are eternally vigilant for ways in which the library may contribute its maximum value to every user.

of Those We Shall Always

PLEASE, PASS THE PIE. Feeding 2,000 hollow legged teen-agers is the daily stint of Miss Pauline Butler and her 21 helpers. Miss Butler, a graduate of the OU School of Home Economics holds an internship in dietetics. Before coming to NWC she taught Institutional Management and Research at Pratt Institute, and was foods director at Anna Maude's cafeteria in Oklahoma City.

THERE'S NEVER A DULL MOMENT for these four busy souls. They keep track of fees, funds and follies. Mrs. Doris Taylor, financial secretary, presides in the counting room, counting out the money of 2,000 student's class fees and dues, and some 40 clubs and projects; Mrs. Billye Jo Pearce, registrar, files and finds grades; Mrs. Delma Harris, recorder, checks absentees; Mrs. Reba James, secretary to Mr. Estes, keeps track of "cuts."

TODAY'S DEMAND FOR STRONG BODIES to house alert minds makes physical education serious business and earnest study. Some 800 boys participate in sports through intramurals and team sports.

Winnings are important to any athletic competition, but more important to Northwest Classen Knights is, "How we play the game." Our teams rank high in sportsmanship.

All girls are encouraged to participate in physical activities and exercise. Femme team sports include basketball, badminton, table-tennis, volleyball, ping pong and swimming. This season found several girls interested in track. Golf is also available.

Bowling is offered as an intramural only.

Boys' and Girls' "O" Clubs are available for those who letter in sports.

Competitive sports include football, basketball, wrestling, track, baseball, tennis and golf.

Mrs. Barbara Dennis teaches swimming. She presides over individual sports and four P.E. sections also. Miss Nona Cowan breaks her P.E. schedule with a class in Hygiene and sponsors Team Sports.

Remember—"OUR TEACHERS!"

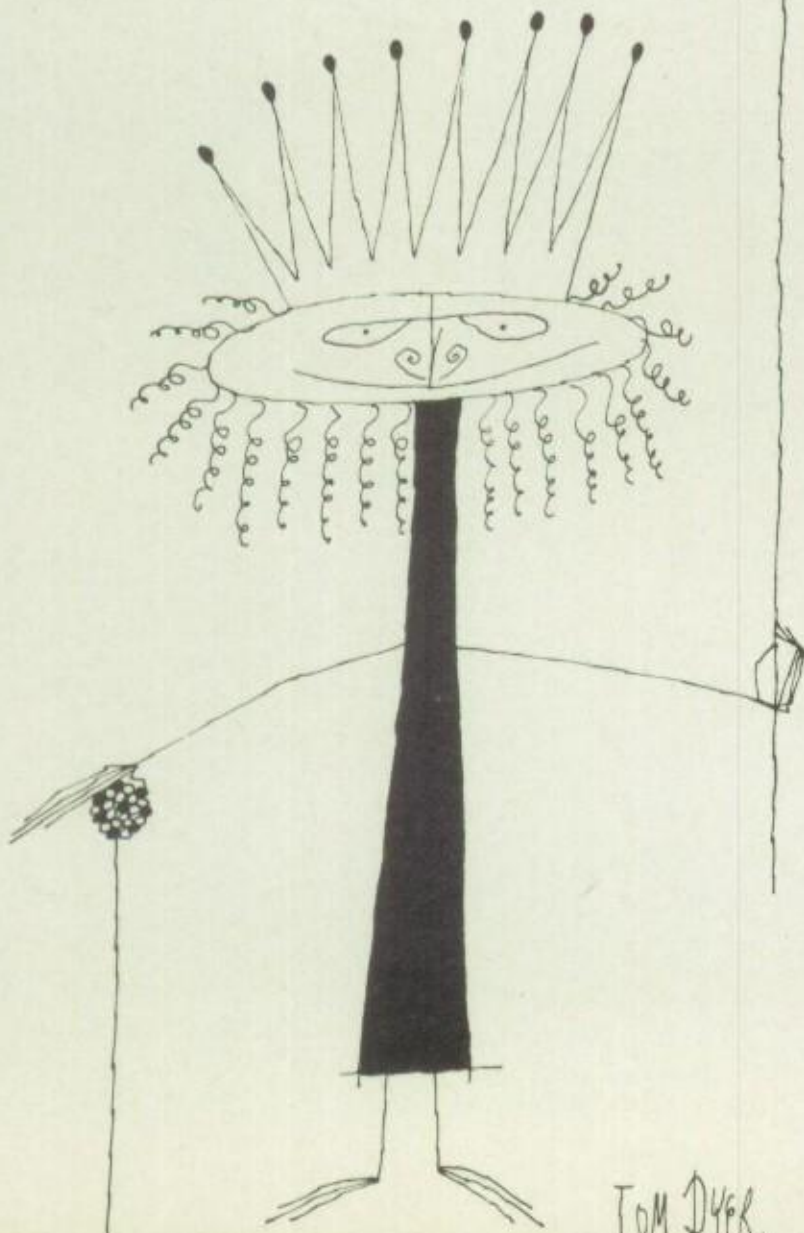

Mr. Paul Crowe, director of Safety Education coaches Tennis. Mr. Rex Irwin, athletic director, coaches Football and Track. Mr. Don Van Pool assists in coaching Basketball. Mr. Leonard Marcotte coaches wrestling. Mr. Clay Davis coaches baseball. Mr. Jack Roblyer coaches basketball. Mr. Jack Anderson assists with spring football coaching and teaches swimming. Mr. Carroll Smelser is a full time Physical Education instructor and coaches Golf.

To become a member of the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY, a junior must be in the top five percent of his class and a senior must be in the top fifteen percent of his class. There are two initiation ceremonies during the year and no meetings except those that are called.

Officers are Mike Brandon, President; Dayna Davis, Vice President; Beverly Stuemky, Secretary; Ruth Hill, Treasurer; Marilyn Smith, Chaplain. Sponsoring this organization are Miss Audrie Alberts, Miss Inez Ellis, Mrs. Maxine Tyler, Mrs. Geraldine Buzbee, Mr. Carl Shafer, Mr. Charles Kerr, Mrs. Madge Mills and Miss Marjorie Miller.

Through the untiring efforts of Miss Lelia Pickard a charter for a chapter of FRENCH HONOR SOCIETY was obtained for Northwest Classen. Miss Pickard's French students have ranked high on national examinations for many years. To be eligible for membership a student must be in fourth semester French with a B+ average.

Don Blanding chapter of QUILL AND SCROLL International Honorary Society for High School Journalists has had a busy year. To celebrate National Newspaper Week they carried through every suggestion made by the national headquarters. To enrich the background of staff members several book reviews were given. A Christmas party greeted alums of the chapter. Senior members took the test for the President's Scholarship. And an initiation was held at the opening of second semester for those qualified for membership.

NATIONAL ART HONOR SOCIETY members take their work seriously. Each year Northwest Classen art students have received national recognition and art scholarships as well as AAUW scholarships. Eighteen students accumulated recognition keys this year in National Scholastics regional competitions. Miss Mary Lamb Lewis and Mrs. Winnie Murray sponsor this group.

Proctor Queen

PROCTOR QUEEN Nancy Newblock is a fifth hour proctor. Ceremonies celebrating her coronation were held in the social center during the annual Proctor social.

Joe Kelso officiated at the coronation and presented Nancy the traditional white coat with the Proctor insignia.

Queen candidates were Lela Fowler, Donna Jackson, Joan Holmes and Pat Robinson. They were Nancy's attendants and each received corsages.

Nancy is a member of the Coronet Pep Club and has been sergeant at arms and secretary. She is also a member of the Announcer's Club and Courtesy Club.

PROCTOR COURT SCENES

Pat Wilcoxson, Helen Woolbright, Janice Shoemaker, Leonard Ball, Raymond Hensley, Joe Magann, are jurors in a Proctor Court case. Jurors are selected by lot.

A typical scene of Proctor Court shows Bob Parker, defense, being sworn in by Jim Adams, bailiff. Randy Robins is prosecuting attorney. Judge is Ruth Ann Harris assisted by Mr. Lloyd M. Estes as advisory judge.

THE BAR ASSOCIATION is composed of all attorneys, judges and court officials of Proctor and Supreme Courts. Tyro attorneys and officials attend briefing sessions and pass a rigorous bar exam before being admitted to the Bar Association. Only members of the Bar Association may try cases before either of the student government courts.

Bailiff, Jim Adams, is asking court clerk, Muriel Hite and assistant court clerk, Marilyn Smith, to summon the defendants to court.

PROCTORS

There's something about being a proctor that appeals to teen-agers. It offers an opportunity for service, yet affords a sense of independence. Proctors are on duty during their advisory period. They may study while at their stations, if so inclined.

Being a proctor incorporates a challenge, too. Proctors taking the oath of their order assume the obligation of setting an example of conduct for others.

To offenders, or those who feel that routine regulations do not apply to them, proctors are considered a pest. Newcomers, not yet oriented, call them a blessing. Certainly the moment anyone steps into the hall during classtime, a pleasant voice will promptly accost "May I see your hall pass?"

in school also. Best of luck. Bill Shole*

If there isn't one, offenders are forthwith issued a subpoena to appear in Proctor Court. The procedure of retaining an attorney, facing a jury, a prosecuting attorney, and probably becoming an inmate of the make-up room, deters offenders.

A captain is in charge of each shift on an hourly basis. He dictates stations and checks proctors placed in different parts of the building or on the grounds to find if they are enforcing the rules and regulations ordained for Northwest Classen's students to abide by. Mr. Lloyd Estes, assistant principal, founded the proctor system and sponsors activities of the group.

Proctoring, however, is not all work and no play. Each spring a mixer, as gay as the rest, features a Proctor Queen and royalty di-dos.

NORTHWEST CLASSEN DEBATERS won first place this year in trial tournaments which qualified them for the state tournament. In February the group went to New Orleans, Louisiana, to participate in the Glendy-Bourk Speech Tournament where they placed second in the sweepstakes. At the Southeastern State Speech Tournament held in Durant, Oklahoma, they took Sweepstakes. Debaters eloquently defend or defeat their proposition. Northwest Classen is accumulating laurels at a terrific rate—six in two years.

Knights and Ladies who aspire to footlight and headline glamor achieve membership in our really grown-up group of dramatists, NATIONAL THESPIANS. A series of services and public appearances pave the way for Little Theatre members to earn the required thirty points necessary for affiliation with the national group.

Mrs. Rose Marie Cherry is the Sponsor.

Members of PLAY PRODUCTIONS organize script, select props, and cast plays. They hold auditions and schedule rehearsals. Productions this year include "First Lady" and "Julius Caesar" under direction of Mrs. Rose Marie Cherry. Much of the atmosphere of near professional performance which engulfs audiences is greatly aided by lighting, sound effects, mastered by student production artists.

Who amasses awards faster than those fast-talking NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE members? Purpose of the league is to recognize outstanding debaters and speech students. Performances before adult audiences and being in the upper two-thirds of their class scholastically help make the twenty points necessary for membership. This group is sponsored by Mr. Ted Nichols and Miss Lenora Owens.

Row 2: Johnston, Long, McDaniel, Jim Robinson, Chas. Robinson, Clark, Hilburn. Row 1: Corken, reading; Hefley, Roberts, Young, Hurst, Brandes, Baker.

LITTLE THEATRE sponsors scholastic dramatic events. There are two main outlets for those with acting ability, beyond the requirements of Speech class—National Thespians and Little Theatre. Members acquire know-how of make-up, directing, stage management and production.

To be an officer in Little Theatre one must be a National Thespian. This group puts poise and confidence on test before the footlights.

CLASSICS EXECUTIVE BOARD is the power behind the annual all-student talent extravaganza "classics." Judy Carper was '57 chairman. Through this group go all details pertaining to the production. Each member has a special assignment for which he is responsible. The theme of "Classics '57" was "That Certain Something."

Normally Jim Gray operates the lighting switchboard and is at the present time the only STAGE CREW student allowed to do so. Jim Robinson is the stage manager for all assembly programs; he directs and co-ordinates the efforts of the stage crew and the cast. Pat Robinson does much of the art work. Allen Gibbs is chiefly interested in electrical effects and sound. Jim McMurray is in charge of the curtains. However, all the boys work with each other doing any number of jobs for a single program. They are responsible for everything and everybody on the stage or stage area. Their work can range from scrubbing, mopping and dusting to scenery design and construction, lighting and backstage traffic.

ANNOUNCERS CLUB trains students to speak articulately over C.S.S. thus making announcements that hold the attention of the listeners. Mr. Ted Nichols and Miss Lenora Owens train the members. An award is given annually to the member voted best announcer of the year. Two social functions a year lend diversion.

CSS ENGINEERS under the direction of Mr. Lloyd M. Estes operate the central sound system thus making it possible for students to hear important announcements at any time during the day. The boys, chosen on voluntary basis, clear up any defects in the intercommunication system and keep it running smoothly.

SHIELD STAFFERS eagerly grab an issue hot off the press and devour their particular contribution. Kirk Hagan, assistant sports; Ronnie Graves, sports; Jack Randel, advertising; Linda Marlin, features; Linda Blackwood, features; Marilyn Goodman, assistant news editor; Randy Robins, chairman of editorial board and columnists; Mary Frances Berkey, reporter and bookkeeper; Pegi Dromgold, editorials; Jerry Hobbs, page three.

BACKBONE OF STUDENT PUBLICATIONS this year was Sydney Sullivant. Sydney editor-in-chief of THE SHIELD also rounded up things that others didn't get done on the ROUND TABLE staff. Through her never ending application to editorial duties she gave the student body the best paper the school has had. Her policies were clear cut and her guidance was firm. Shield writers took top ratings in state contests and THE SHIELD is in competition for THE GEORGE GALLUP AWARD, sponsored by Quill and Scroll for achievements during National Newspaper Week.

Every NWC SHIELD STAFFER agrees that journalism is a great field. Besides teaching self-reliance, it stimulates awareness of happenings all over the world.

Newspapering on THE SHIELD approaches professional training. With the advantages of an excellent physical set-up, aspiration to get a berth on the student publication staff has received great impetus.

A new column was formed in the paper to give Taft Junior High students recognition. Since ninth graders were moved to NWC a News Hounds Club, composed of eighth graders, prepare "Takes from Taft" for THE SHIELD.

IF IT ISN'T IN THE SHIELD IT DIDN'T HAPPEN! Copies of the paper are distributed to advisories. A readers survey revealed readership to be 93 per cent.

Mrs. Nevva Sartin, director of publications, discusses coverage of a story with Linda Ray, SHIELD news editor. "Get an angle," is her stock admonition.

THE ROUND TABLE ART STAFF devises end sheets, division pages and all appeal factors of the ROUND TABLE. They work under direction of Miss Mary Lamb Lewis.

DUMMIES, DEADLINES, DUDS, DISAPPOINTMENTS! Members of THE ROUND TABLE STAFF are made of stern stuff. They take it in stride and when stymied by a planned page going haywire, they put machinery into reverse and come up with the next best thing. Devotion to duty, after school hours, holidays and weekends are the qualities that shine brightly.

The responsibility of interpreting a school as large as ours, with so varied a program is no undertaking for weaklings. Very little can be accomplished in the limited class period assigned to producing a yearbook.

High ratings greeted the '56 ROUND TABLE, VOL. NO. 1. This sets a mark no staff wishes to lower. The book is entered in five criticisms.

On their never ceasing search for ideas, Carolyn Roring and Judy Broach, features; Barbara Ervin, sports; Roberta Taylor and Sally Lively, clubs, are happy about something they've come across in one of their sessions of digging through research material in the Journalism Department library.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS is a program in which students are employed in the afternoon as student-learners and receive training in actual processes of a chosen occupation. Students attend school in the mornings where they receive instruction related to their job and in other general subjects.

Occupations offered are technical, skilled, or service, all of which require at least 2000 hours of training to become proficient. Among them

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION courses qualify eligible students for part time positions under supervision. Oklahoma City Chapters of D. E. Clubs of America hosted the national convention in Oklahoma City, April 24-27. Meeting headquarters were the Biltmore Hotel. The 14th Annual State Convention, held at Stillwater this year, found NWC's group entered in contests of job interview, sales demonstration, window display, ad planning and layout, parliamentary law, spelling, arithmetic, store layout and textile identification.

Commercial Artist, Jeweler, Dental Assistant, Nurse Aide, Laboratory Technician, Draftsman, Upholsterer, Lithographer, Printer, Photographer, Machinist, the building trades and many others.

Benefits are training in a chosen occupation, school credit, pay and a job upon graduation. Many work their way through college with training they received in Diversified Occupation classes.

As result of winning 8 superior, 2 excellent and 4 good ratings this year, plus other activities during the year the club won the C. K. Reiff Memorial Award for outstanding activities for clubs that achieve 2,500 activities points.

ACTIVITIES AND PURPOSES OF THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

1. To promote greater interest in commercial subjects and occupations.
2. To acquaint students with the different phases of business.
3. To have outstanding people from the business and education worlds to speak to the club.
4. To have social activities.
5. To have field trips.

What kind of high school students are those who think teaching will be their chosen field? It is estimated that about 1,300 Oklahoma students, as seniors, plan to teach, and 33.3 percent of the prospective teachers ranked in the upper 10 percent of their classes. A chapter of FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA was established this year at Northwest Classen and named in honor of our former principal, Mr. W. H. Taylor.

ART NOUVEAU is composed of seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen with one thing in common—ART. The club participates in city and state contests. Sponsors of the organization are Miss Mary Lamb Lewis and Mrs. Winnie Murray. Members of this very busy group are constantly on call. They work on posters; make table decorations; pretty up the Christmas tree; make show case displays and do dozens of other jobs that require special talent.

Job of the PEP COUNCIL is to coordinate activities of athletic programs of Northwest Classen. Composed of the President and Vice President of each Pep Club, of the "O" Clubs, the President of the student body, and the cheerleaders, they manage the sale of advertising for the sports programs, set dates for pep assemblies and indicate who will be in charge of capers, bon fires and keeping up the general spirit of the student body.

Working closely with faculty sponsors they are a source of manpower responsible for putting over many of the community and service drives that see student participation.

Being polite proves so fascinating that COURTESY CLUB now has a junior and senior branch. Miss Della Link sponsors the senior group and Miss Marjorie Miller the junior group. Members guide guests visiting in our building, assist P.T.S.A. at open house, usher for senior assembly, senior sermon, award assemblies and commencement. The group annually models at the fashion show sponsored by the D. E. Club. This year they have had a hostess in the student lounge each hour.

PRESIDENTS CLUB, composed of presidents of all organizations at Northwest Classen, coordinates activities and programs of the various groups. At meetings they discuss club problems and report on the outcome of activities of each club. Class presidents and the president of Student Council are also members.

Service to your fellow man is the key to JUNIOR RED CROSS. This year, the group sponsored a program for Northwest Classen students home bound by illness or accidents. The Westminster "Men of Song," from Fulton, Missouri, gave the annual Junior Red Cross fund-raising assembly.

Representatives from each advisory directed the filling of 150 gift boxes sent overseas at Christmas time. Volunteers serve at local hospitals after completing a training course at the County Red Cross Center. Miss Helen Bourke is sponsor.

Y-TEENS, high school branch of Y.W.C.A. is designed to develop three phases of personality: social, physical, and spiritual. Activities emphasize service to others. Meetings feature social events and guest speakers. The group is sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Peale.

HI-Y was created by the International YMCA to assist high school boys in establishing high standards of Christian living. It is one of the oldest among high school organizations. Northwest Classen members have a busy schedule of social events, meetings at which special speakers are heard and participation in Youth in Government, World Service Program and Hi-Y all-city basketball.

YOUTH OF THE KINGDOM in its second year remains the schools largest club, with 388 members. Persons of all faiths take part in this group. Selecting the devotionals for the central sound system and sponsoring the morning watch services at Northwest Christian Church are outstanding services of the group this year. Meetings are held twice a month, with guest speakers who relate their religious experiences. A banquet honoring officers is the organizations main social event of the year. Presidents for the year were Richard Crisler and Patsy Bethell, Mr. Clark Cunningham, and Mrs. Edna Hedges sponsor the groups activities.

THE AERONAUTICS CLUB was organized for the purpose of creating interest in aviation. Activities consist of field trips and flight training lessons. This year trips were made to Vance Airforce Base and Catlin Aviation Terminal at Will Rogers Field.

Officers of the club are Bill Catlin, President; Michael Lynch, Vice President; Ruth Hill, Secretary; and Bob Elston, Parliamentarian. Mr. J. H. Conger sponsors the organization and arranges their trips.

At the AMATEUR RADIO meetings the members discuss and exchange ideas about radio fundamentals including instructions in operating techniques and equipment maintenance. One of their main projects is learning the International Morse Code. Mr. Rodney St. Dizier directs the group.

NWC BOWLING CLUB is an intramural activity. Members compete for trophies presented at the end of the year to the most improved bowler and the boy and girl making the most points. NWC's league is united with the National American Junior Bowling Congress.

OFFICE AIDES, under direction of Mrs. Delma Harris, gather absentee cards, distribute call slips and run errands.

Mrs. Reba James teaches the girls to operate the switchboard. They receive $\frac{1}{4}$ credit for this work.

LIBRARY AIDES are probably the busiest students in the school. They check books in and out, distribute fine slips and collect fines. They learn the skills of library science under the direction of Miss Eunice Cockrum and Mrs. Alma Doughty. Library Aides wishing to learn book reviewing and continue in library science may become members of the LIBRARY CLUB.

NORTHWEST CLASSEN BAND directed by Mr. Arthur Johnson, is divided into three sections—marching, pep and concert. Early morning rehearsals make possible the stimulating half-time performances of the ninety-five piece marching band led by drum major Larry Herndon at football games. Their precision marching in civic parades, the Christmas and inaugural parades, also become realizations through hard work and practice. The twenty members of the pep band led by Larry Herndon and Frances Fox provide music at pep assemblies, basketball games and other athletic events. The seventy members of the concert band are kept busy with concerts, contests and continual practice.

NWC band organizations are the Band Girls Club and Band Parents Association. Members of the Band Girls sponsor an annual paper drive which helps buy much needed equipment. Band Parents sponsor a fruit cake sale and rummage sale to raise money for the band and sponsor a three day outing in the spring for band members in addition to a pleasure trip once every three years. Last year the trip was to Houston, Texas. The annual magazine sales drive offers opportunities for members to win valuable prizes and provides needed equipment for the band.

Mr. Arthur Johnson, director, is a past president of Phi Beta Mu, honorary music fraternity, a graduate of Oklahoma A&M and did graduate work at the University of Michigan and the University of Oklahoma, and is a member of the American School Band Directors Association.

RITA KAYE NEWTON
1956-57 Choir Queen

A CAPPELLA CHOIR is an organization, not a class. Each member is interviewed by the choir's governing board and also auditioned. There are seventy-five members who brave the zero hour, rain or shine. This year they have presented "The Lonesome Train," "Song of Christmas," and plan to give "Down in the Valley." Choir members went to Joplin, Missouri, for the Tri-State music festival. Mr. Frank Vitale sponsors the organization. Three candidates for Choir Queen were Rita Kaye Newton, Mary Binns, and Pat McCombs. Chosen from these three to reign over choir this year is Rita Kaye Newton.

CRY-SLURS is a group of twenty vocalists chosen from a cappella Choir. This smaller group makes TV appearances and does general good-will ambassadoring in representing our school. They participate in school assemblies and classics. Sometimes they receive money for their performances. This is put into a fund that is used for parties or vocal department needs. Mr. Frank Vitale directs the group.

BOYS' "O" CLUB, is organized for boys who have shown outstanding ability in sports and have lettered in one or more of the eight major sports offered at Northwest Classen. Athletes who excel are nominated by the Athletic Council.

Besides participating in Northwest Classen Capers and operating concession stands at Basketball games, the organization sponsors the annual election of All Sports Queen. This year's election showed that Cindy Jones was favored at our school. Giving close competition were Judy Broach, Margaret Simon, Beth James and Janet Shields.

This organization encourages sportsmanship and helps to form fairminded citizens for tomorrow.

We Feel Better; We Got Our Letter

The GIRLS' "O" Club is composed of girls who have received letters for outstanding contributions in the field of girls' sports. Members of the club encourage good sportsmanship and promote intramurals. Miss Nona Cowan and Mrs. Barbara Dennis sponsor the group. Some of the year's activities included sponsoring a mixer, Capers, a volleyball game between the Girls "O" Club and the lady faculty members, and a week-end outing to one of the state parks.

Wonder what it is? New luster comes into beaming faces at the traditional ceremony of presenting the presidential cloak to Olivia Nixon.

In summer heat or winter snows, you'll find Cygnets on their toes. They gather ads, cheer their teams, help with community projects. They contribute their part to Classics, to student council and rate high in scholastic achievements. They're at every sports event.

You may recognize these girls by their purple sweaters and purple skirts. Or look for Tutu, their unique mascot, a toy French poodle. Her silky coat is dyed purple and she is always with them.

Main social of the Cygnet year is their annual football banquet. Cygnets also sponsor an annual style show, at which Courtesy club members model. They sponsor mixers and entertain track boys with a Spring Sports picnic.

Sandra Colvin, Sharon Brook, Kelly Pace, Marilyn Dorn, Tiki Taylor recite rhymes that state their ideas of qualities essential in an "Ideal Man." These attractive Hollywood celebrities drew quite a host of hopefuls.

The Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club was the scene of '56-'57 Football Banquet at which Cygnets honored the grid warriors. Entertainment for the event was a take-off on Ed Murrow's PERSON TO PERSON program. The place was literally swarming with VIP's and others not so Impo., but all having the time of their young lives.

Dinner, presentation of letters to team members, and dancing made it an evening long remembered.

Leslie Pitney and Karen Thornton headed the committee on entertainment. First semester officers were Olivia Nixon, President; Allison Kearney, Vice President; Barbara Highleyman, Secretary; Ruth Hill, Asst Secretary.

Pat Robinson was named President second semester; Judy Broach, Vice President; Ann Buck, Secretary; Joan Trice, Asst Secretary; Shelley Gardner, Treasurer.

The club picnic is a main social event of the spring semester.

ENTHUSIASTIC girls wearing flashy gold sweaters and purple pleated skirts are seen at all Knight sports contests, yelling their team to victory. Big event on the CORONET calendar each year is the basketball banquet held in March. Identification patches are presented by the girls and letters and jackets are given to players by Mr. Jack Roblyer, coach.

Ad selling is the big project during vacation. The club sponsors bus trips and school mixers, ushers for community programs, supports charity drives and rallies to support the Classics and other school programs.

BOOSTING SCHOOL SPIRIT comes first with members of The Lancers, boys pep club. Each year members gather food to fill Christmas baskets for less fortunate families and participate in social service projects sponsored by the school.

Members are encouraged to become well-rounded by taking part in all phases of the school program. An important position for one of their members this year is holding the presidency of the school.

At an annual Christmas formal, Lancers crown a Queen. Harriet Hughes captured the honor this year. Candidates were Jenny Everett, Jo Ann Holmes, Irene Pellow and Sara Spradling. Mr. Charles Hale, Mr. Soce Lewis and Mr. Marion Jamison sponsor Lancer activities.

Harriet Hughes, Lancer Queen, was crowned at the annual Christmas dance held at Lakeview Country Club. She is affiliated with Cygnets, Announcers Club, Youth of the Kingdom and is an office aide during sixth hour.

Knights Surprise First Night Viewers

"Ardmore, Ardmore hear our cry! V-I-C-T-O-R-Y! Are we in it? Well I guess. Northwest Classen Y-E-S!"

Highlighting a successful schedule, Northwest Classen's rampaging Knights clipped Ardmore 7-6 in the season opener September 14. September 20 the Knights charged Southeast's squad and rolled over the Spartans 20-7.

The chant "Trample Trojans" echoed through Northwest halls September 28 before the Douglass match. Another victory! In the initial meeting with this team the Knights won by a single touchdown, but suffered the loss of a valuable player. Bob Cornell was injured in the third quarter.

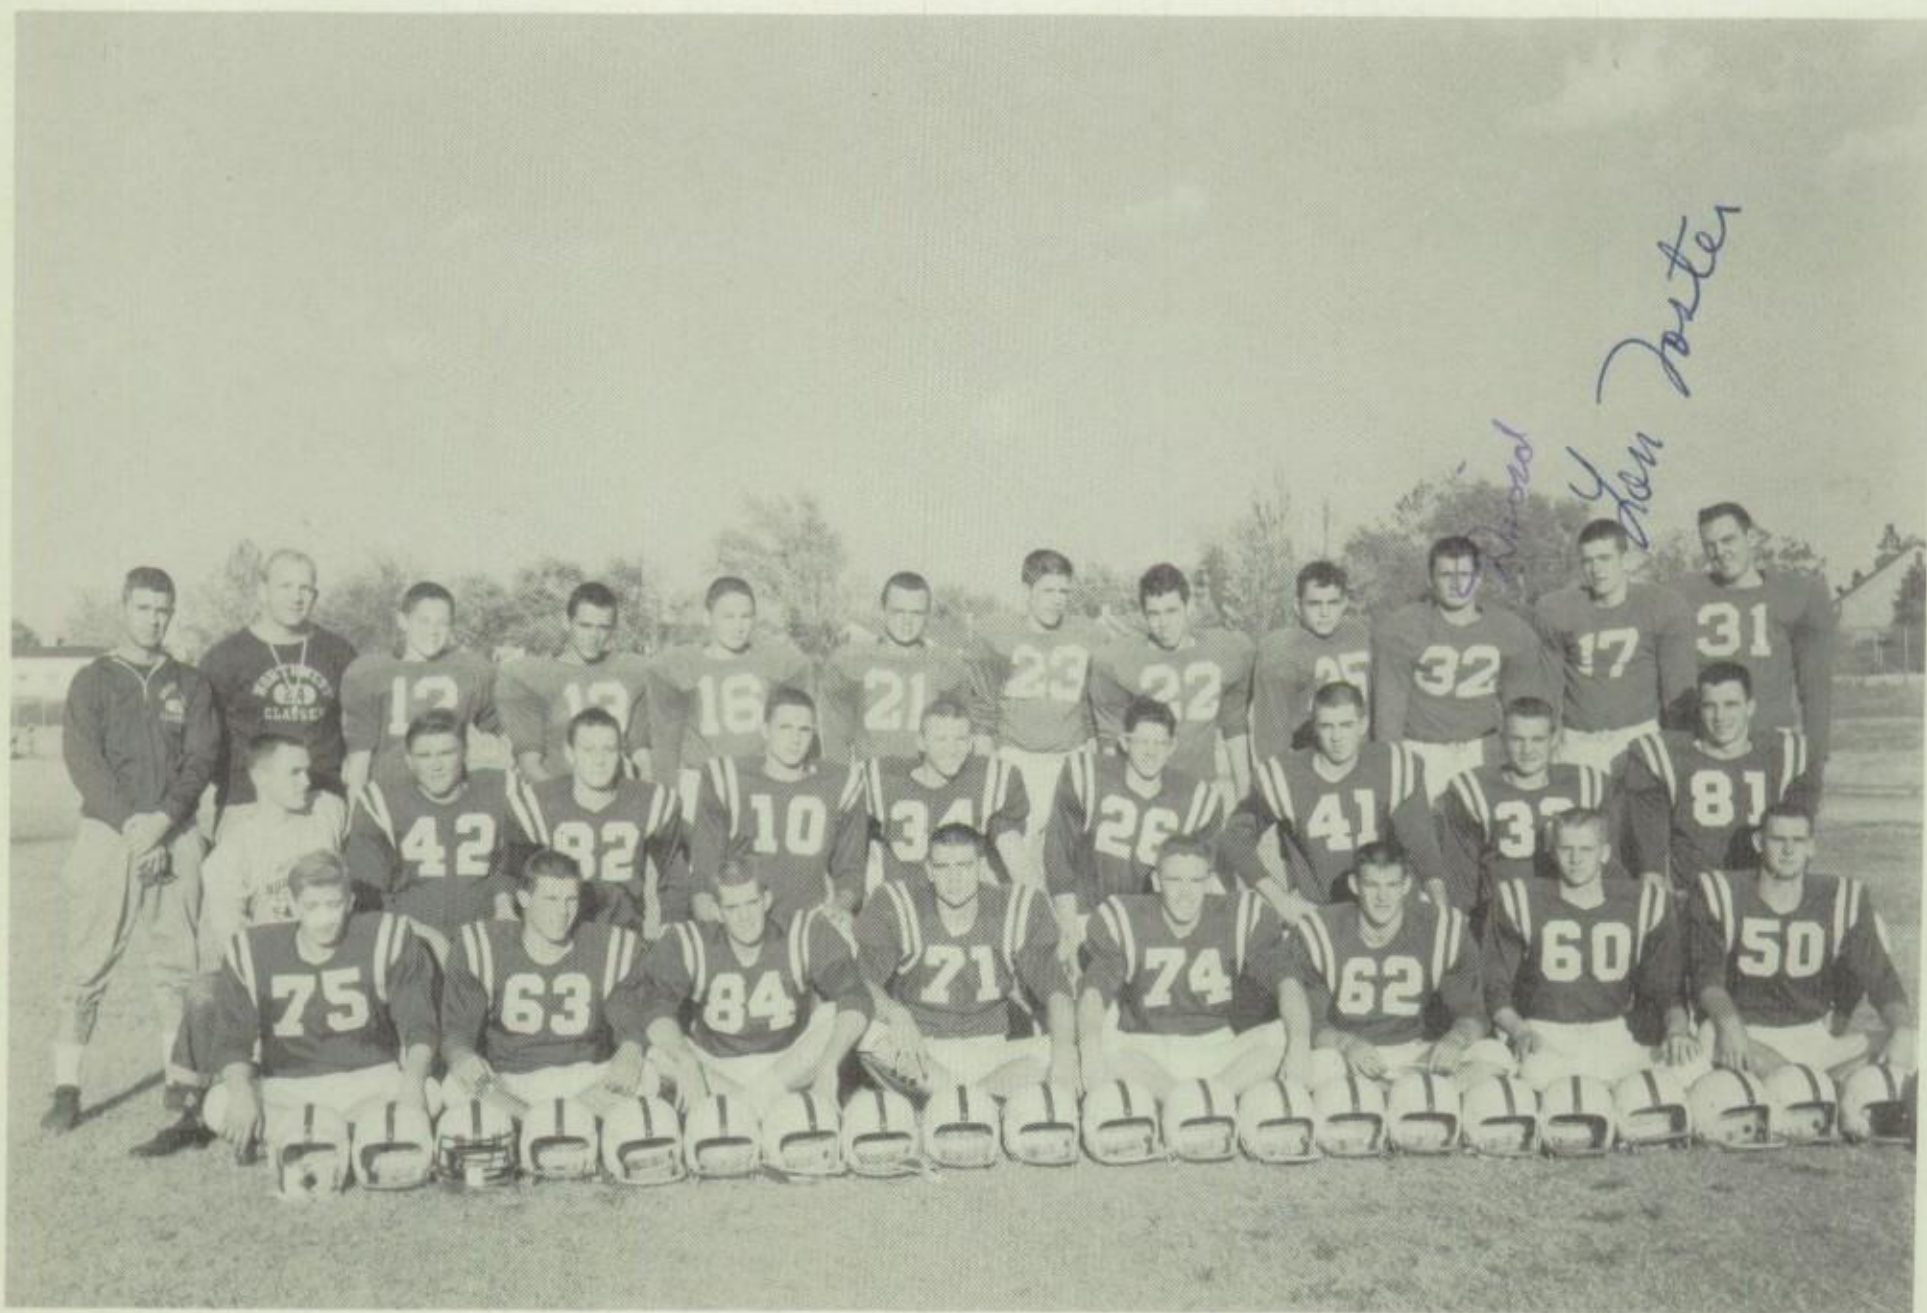

Spirit at an all time high October 5, loyal Knight supporters chartered five busses to jaunt to Lawton. In a hard fought game Lawton took the Knights 26-7. October 11 the Knights paced Central's Cardinals 25-6 to the rollicking battle cry of "Cage Cardinals." Next the Knights invaded the Shawnee Wolves' den. They galloped home from this venture bringing scalps and all, to the tune of 34-0.

October 25 brought the BIG ONE, Capitol Hill. Without the benefit of quarterback Bob Cornell, injured in the Douglass game, Northwest Classen lost this tussle 14-7. The next week-end the Knights crown tumbled at a defeat by Enid 19-14.

Northwest Classen's first annual Homecoming, November 9, was sparked by an 18-7 victory over Seminole. November 15 Northeast's Vikings invaded Knightland to be overrun 13-6.

Tulsa's Will Roger's Ropers posed a threatening challenge to the Knights November 21. Another bus trip poured loyal Knight supporters into Skelly Stadium, Tulsa, to watch their footballing gallants fight a scoreless tie to wind up another successful season, featuring seven wins, three defeats and one tie.

Knights Fight

September 14—Ardmore

Northwest Classen opened '56 by nudging Ardmore 7-6. Halfback Frank Bruner capped a 73 yard drive with a one-yard smash over the goal to tie the game 6-6. Rex Matthews kicked the extra point. The 12 play drive featured two passes from quarterback Bob Cornell to end Barney Barnett.

September 20—Southeast

Offensive play by quarterback Bob Cornell and halfback Don Timberlake sparked Northwest Classen's 20-7 victory over the Spartans. Timberlake scored on a 68 yard punt return and a 59 yard dash on an intercepted pass. Cornell led the Knights to a first quarter lead with a 70 yard dash on a keeper.

September 28—Douglass

Bob Cornell, quarterback, played an outstanding game against the Douglass Trojans. He set up Northwest's first touchdown with two long passes to halfbacks Don Timberlake and Frank Bruner, early in the second quarter. Buzzy McDonald completed both conversions for the Knights. Cornell limped off the field with a leg injury in the fourth quarter, which ended his high school football career. The Knights drove to a 14-7 victory in this conference opener.

October 5—Lawton

Lawton's victory over the Knights was the first upset of the season. Before a crowd of 8,000, Lawton tallied 26-7. The Knights, however, showed Lawton some rugged defensive play. Quarterback Jim Parks' 45 yard punting average was a high spot of the game. Beautiful team work by Frank Bruner and Don Timberlake gave Northwest Classen its only touchdown.

Halfback Don Timberlake and quarterback Jim Parks scored all five touchdowns as Northwest Classen breezed past Shawnee 34-0. Buzz McDonald kicked the first of four conversions for the Knights.

October 25—Capitol Hill

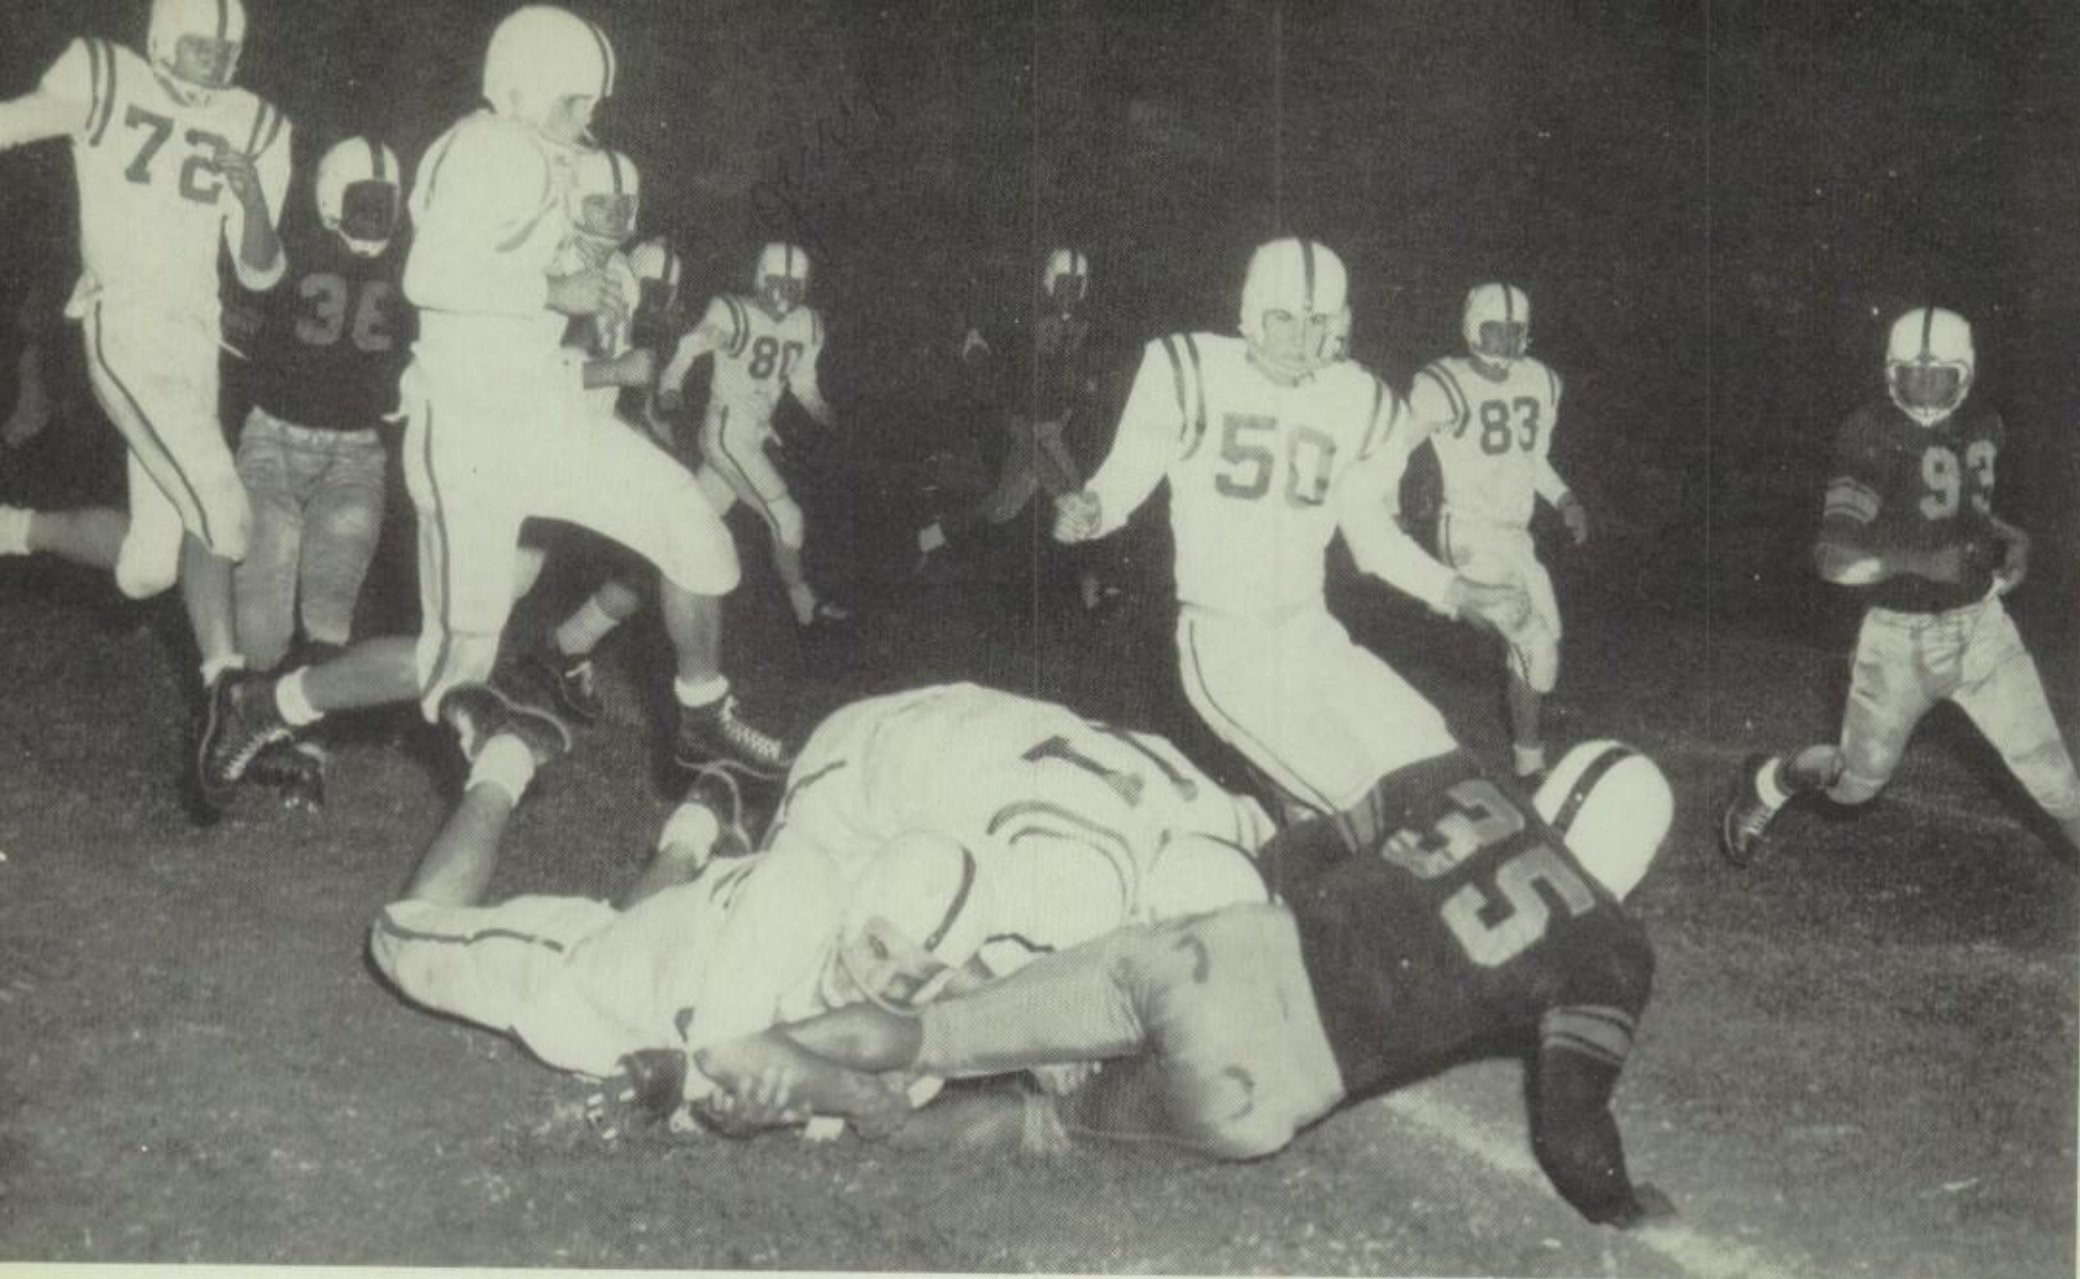

Northwest felt its second loss of the season when Capitol Hill crashed to a 14-7 victory. With 14 seconds left to play fullback Rex Matthews plunged from the one yard line to pick up a touchdown for the Knights. Defensive play was strengthened by 205 pound tackle Walt Metcalfe.

November 2—Enid

Northwest Classen's halfback Frank Bruner streaked 95 yards during the first quarter to give the Knights their first score of the evening. Sophomore quarterback Buzz McDonald made both conversions, but the Knights fell, 19-14, at the hands of the Enid Plainsmen. The irony of this defeat was that this was the Plainsmen's first win of the season.

November 9—Seminole

Homecoming fans saw Northwest Classen push to an easy 18-7 victory over Seminole. At the opening kickoff the Knights took a lead which they never gave up. The most exciting play of the game came after the final gun sounded. Barnett threw a pass into the end zone for a touchdown, but an illegal receiver downfield wiped out the score.

Head Coach Rex Irwin discusses the day's practice plays with Halfback Don Timberlake, End Dennis Foster and Guard Bill Gray.

November 15—Northeast

Northeast invaded the Knight battleground with a fighting spirit, only to be spilled 13-6 by Northwest. With 7:20 left in the first quarter Barney Barnett ran 2 yards on a keeper for a touchdown. Early in the third quarter Don Timberlake went 52 yards for a touchdown. Buzz McDonald made the conversion.

November 21—Will Rogers

Northwest Classen wound up the season in a battle with Tulsa's Will Rogers Ropers which ended in a scoreless tie. The Knights staged two serious threats but failed to complete either. Northwest concluded its season with seven wins, three defeats and one tie.

It Takes Vim To Win

This year's basketball team was a hot and cold aggregation that provided many thrills for fans.

Northwest Classen's Knights, coached by Mr. Jack Roblyer, began easily with wins over Douglass and U. S. Grant in festival contests November 30. The Knights met Southeast December 4, ringing up their third straight conquest of the season.

Next on the agenda was powerful Lawton who pulled past the Knights 47-41. Northwest suffered another defeat December 11, losing by 14 points to Blackwell. December 13th Knight roundballers traveled to Tulsa for the Tulsa Tourney and returned sporting a 1-1 record. December 18 the Knights knocked off Northeast's Vikings 47-42. After Christmas Northwest entered the second tournament of the season, in Enid. Enid followed the Knights home for a game January 4. Plainsman might proved too much for the Knights who went down in defeat 61-45.

Spirit rose to a fever pitch as the Knights squeezed Central 40-38 in an overtime chiller. January 11, loyal supporters followed Knight roundballers to Dodge City, Kansas. Northwest took the tilt in the last quarter, 53-48. January 15 the Knight squad visited the Douglass court. In a beautiful game of skill, the Trojans drove to victory 53-51. If a thriller were called for, fans got it January 18 when the Shawnee Wolves trotted onto the Northwest court. Knights staged a superb exhibition of team play and outscored the Wolves 45-43.

Agonizing suspense kept a spirited crowd on the edge of their seats until the last few minutes of the game when Northwest met Capitol Hill on the Redskins home court. The Redskins nudged the Knights 34-19. Northwest spilled Catholic High 57-42 in a hard fought battle January 29. In a three-minute overtime thriller the Knights went down 40-38 at the hands of the Douglass Trojans February 1. February 5 the roundballers traveled to Duncan and were defeated 43-36. Then on to Enid where they went down fighting to a score of 57,45. The Knights nearly ran Harding off the court in a thrilling match of skills February 12 when Northwest stomped the Eagles 56-36. February 15 the Shawnee Wolves defeated the Knights 59-44. Knight defenses sparked a well fought game February 22 as the Knights met the Redskins on the home court. Capitol Hill defeated Northwest 54-48. Northwest surprised the Midwest City Bombers by stomping them 71-57 in the last home game of the season for the Knights. March 1 the Knights invaded John Marshall and clipped the Bears 56-48.

Northwest Classen victoriously entered the semifinals of the class AA Regional Tournament, surprising Capitol Hill 49-44 in the second overtime period of the game.

Northwest Classen completed its '56-'57 schedule with a 15-11 record.

Coach Jack Roblyer gives last minute pointers that might decide the outcome of the game.

Coached by Mr. Don Van Pool, Northwest Classen's 'B' team had another fine season and showed all the hustle and bustle necessary to win most of their games. High point man was Richard Glasgow with 164 points, followed closely by Tom Ward with 99 points.

The team was a high scoring bunch and tied with Enid for first place in the Mid-State Conference.

Basketball season found Freshmen, led by Coach Don Van Pool, turning in commendable records. Sparked with outstanding performances by Tom Ward, Lynn Loveless, Lon Foster, Mike Miller, Larry Bartlett, Jerry Shockley, Joe Riley, David Howell, David Russell, Stanley Wiles, Chris Weaver, and Eddie Huey, the team landed the City Championship in the Jr. High League.

Valiant Knights Annihilate

December 7—Lawton

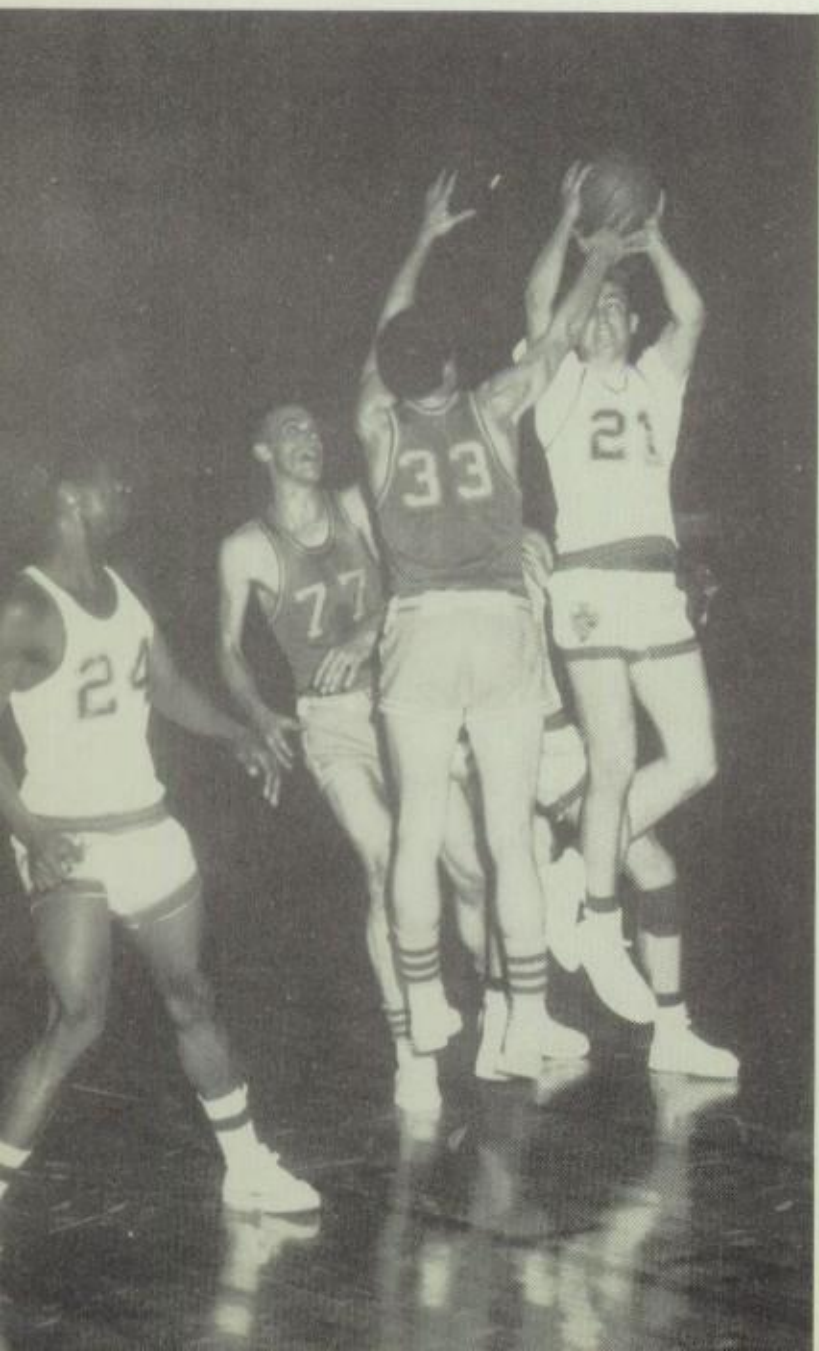

Last minute efforts of Ronnie Skaggs during the Lawton game couldn't overcome the six point lead of the Wolverines. Barney Barnett slowed Lawton down during the second half and the Wolverine lead was narrowed by a set shot by Jim Daniel and two free shots by Bob Lewis.

December 18—Northeast

Northwest coasted past Northeast's Vikings 47-42 for the sixth victory of the season. John Pryor, Bob Lewis, and Ronnie Skaggs led the Knights with 10 points each.

Going after a possible rebound are Knights Bob Lewis (77) and Jim Smelser (33) in the Northwest Classen-Dodge City, Kansas tilt January 11. Knights won 53-48.

Demons and Wolves

January 4—Enid

Despite skillful maneuvering by Barney Barnett and Ronnie Skaggs, Enid shattered the Knights 61-45 before some 1500 fans at the Northwest gym. Ronnie Skaggs was high scorer for the Knights. The Enid win avenged a 1 point loss to Northwest in the Enid tournament the week before.

January 8—Central Pacing the Knights to their narrow win over Central was Jimmy Smelser with 14 points. Northwest climaxed a thrilling performance in a two minute overtime to tumble the Cardinals 40-38.

January 18—Shawnee

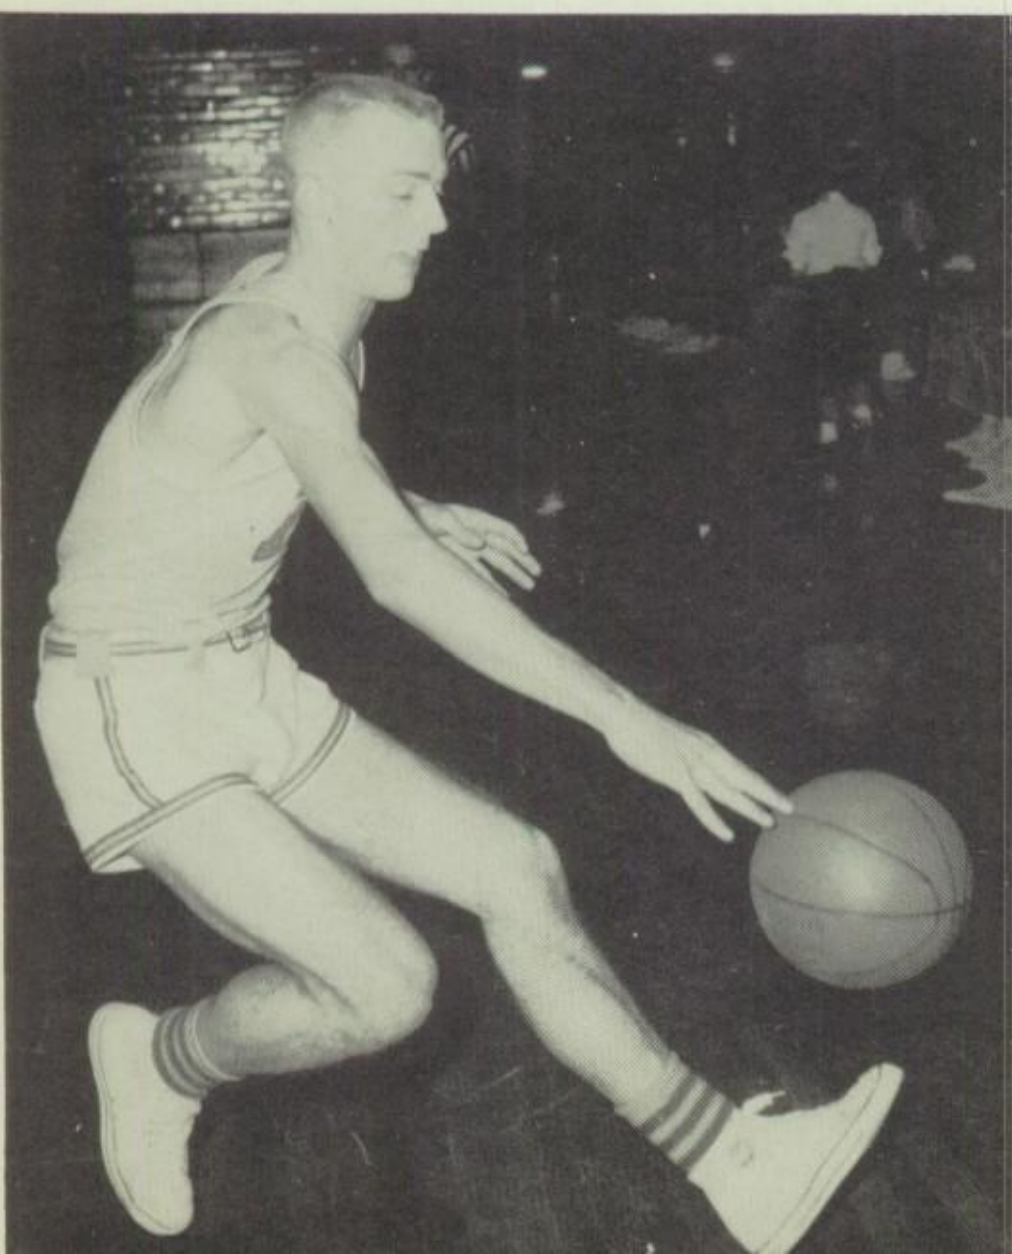

Northwest Classen snatched a 45-43 mid-State Conference win from Shawnee on the home court, January 18. Bob Lewis and Ronnie "Cotton" Skaggs shot the Knights into the lead with 11 points and 18 points, respectively.

February 1—Douglass

Knight strength was overpowered in a hectic overtime struggle with the Douglass Trojans February 1 on the home court. With the pressure on, the Knights entered the 3 minute overtime to a score of 35-35. With only 10 seconds left the Trojans made the score 40-38. Barnett, Skaggs, and Lewis each garnered 10 points for Northwest.

'Twas a Sad Sight,—

Bob Lewis, 6'4" senior, who scored 11 points in the Northwest Classen-Shawnee tilt, attempts to continue his hot streak.

February 12—Harding

Knight skill dominated the court when Northwest met Harding. With Knight subs seeing much action the Knights ripped the Eagles 56-36. Ronnie Skaggs bagged 16 points, followed closely by Barney Barnett with 11 points and Bill Karpenko with 10 points.

February 22—Capitol Hill

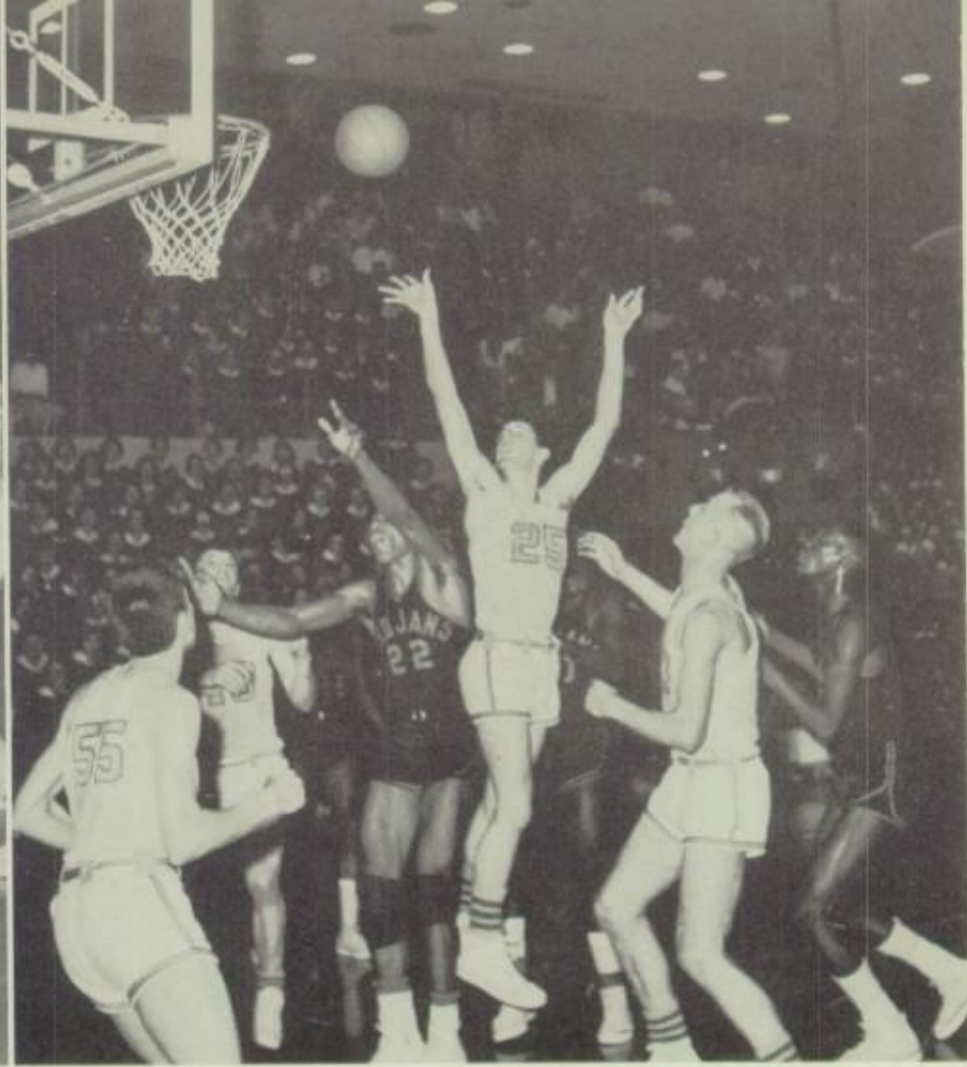

In a rough and tumble game that featured sharp defenses by the Knights, Northwest Classen bowed to arch rival, Capitol Hill, 54-48. The Knight rally was sparked by Ronnie Skaggs and Bob Lewis who totaled 18 points and 10 points respectively.

February 26—Midwest City

Northwest Classen edged in front late in the first half and went on to a surprise victory over Midwest City, stomping the Bombers 71-57, in the last home game of the season. Jim Smelser led the way for the Knights with 18 points. Ronnie Skaggs added 16, Tom Kingery and Bob Lewis 11 each and Barney Barnett 10.

Beautiful team work by Barney Barnett, Jim Smelser and Tom Kingery in a successful attempt to keep the ball from Trojan hands.

Closely pressed by a Douglass player, Barney Barnett shoots for another score as Northwest went down in defeat 40-38 at the hands of the Trojans.

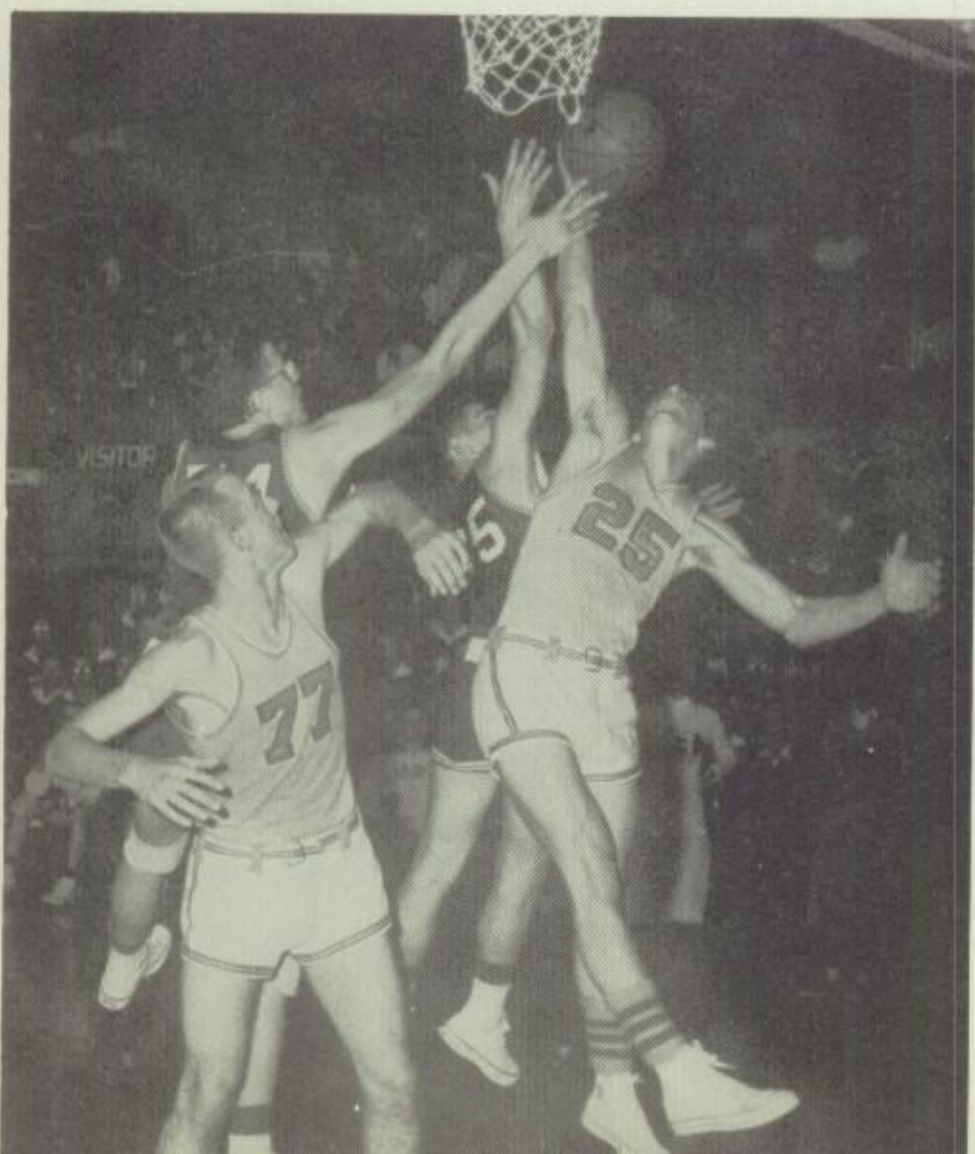

Senior Dick Johnson, closely followed by Harding players, retreats toward the home goal to help the Knights tromp Harding's Eagles 56-36.

Tom Kingery, Jim Seamans, and John Pryor clamor for the ball during an exciting moment of the game with Harding Eagles.

Knights Reach Semi-Finals

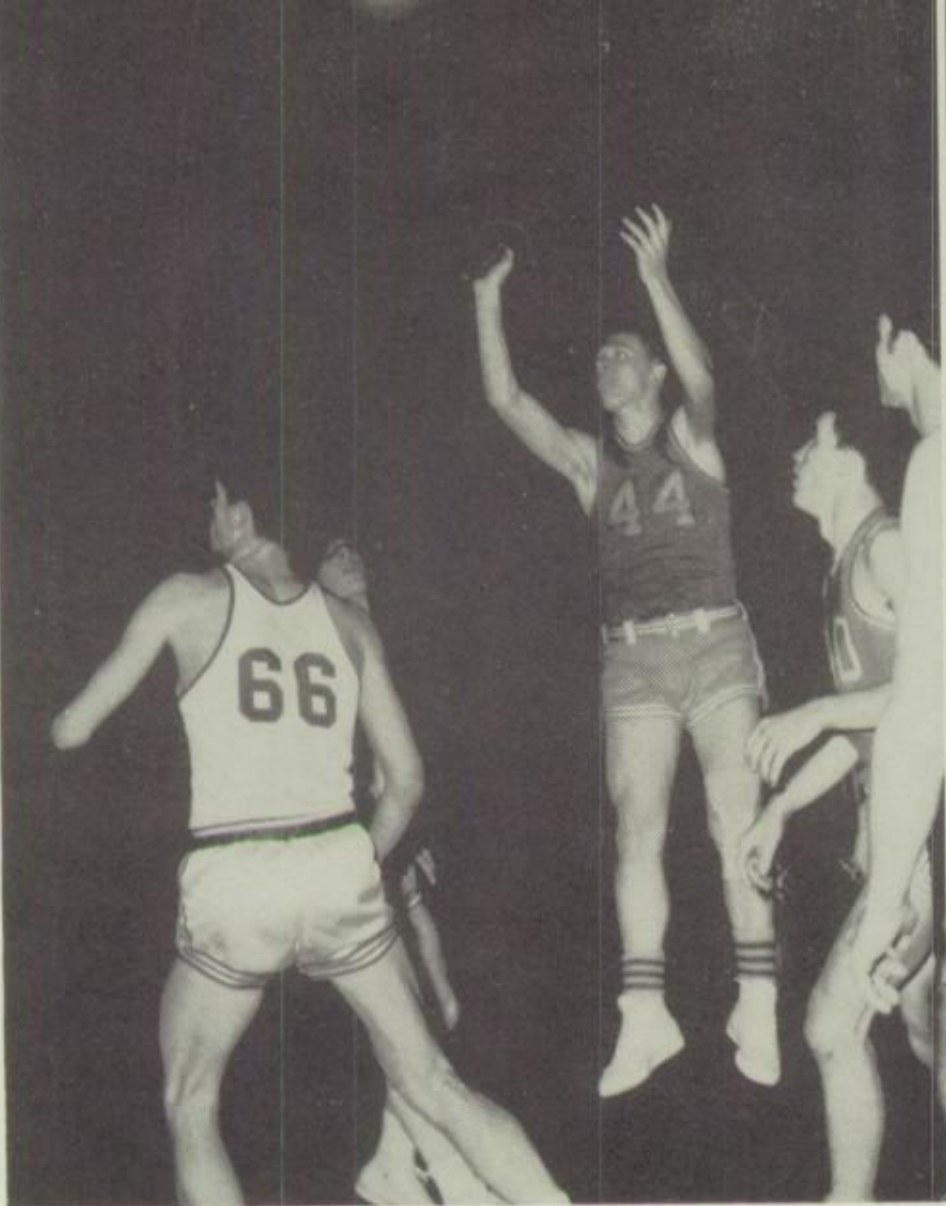

Jim Smelser and Bob Lewis vie with Harding opponents for a rebound in the game with the Eagles.

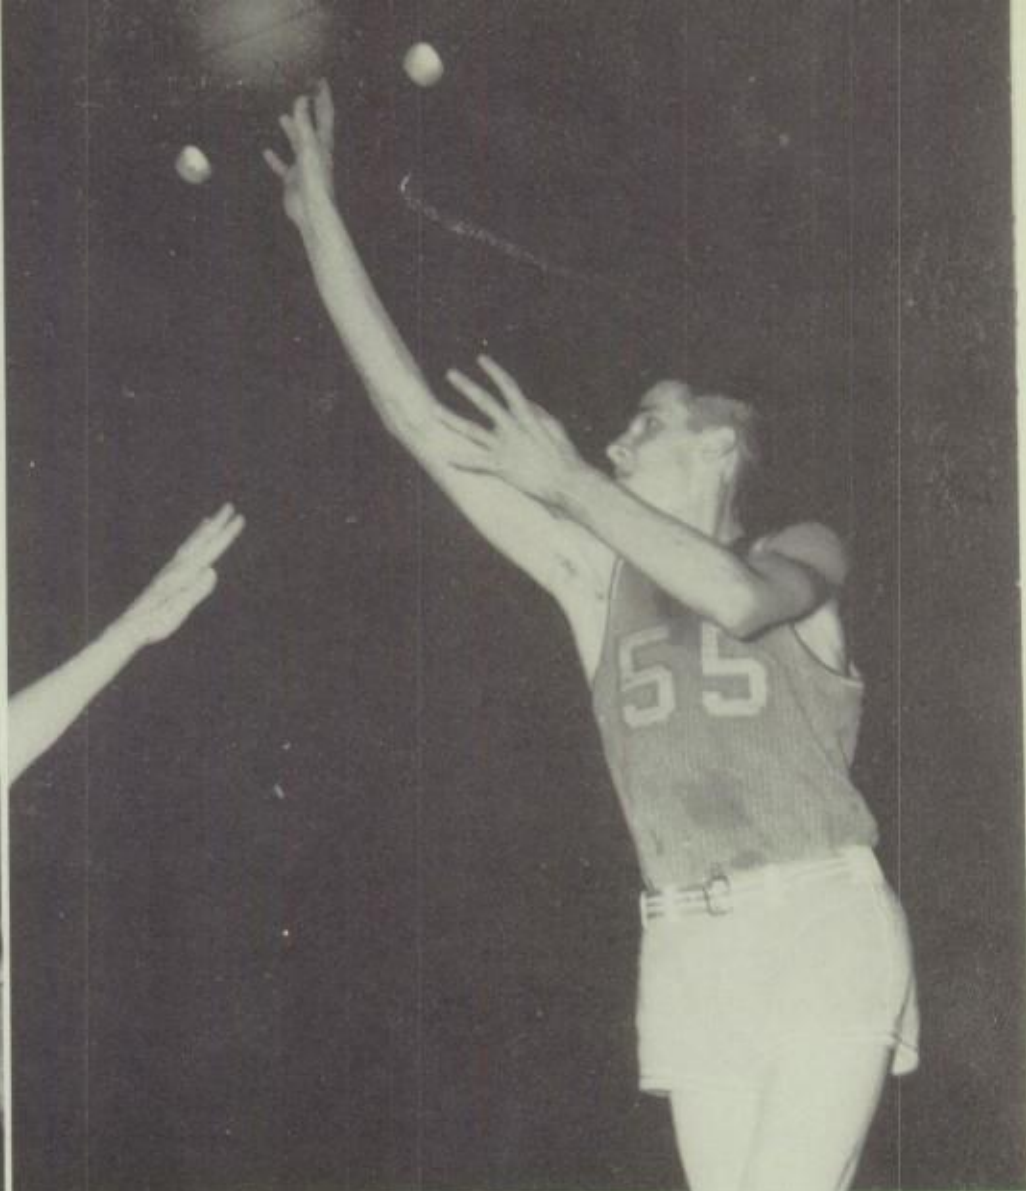

Northwest Classen vaulted into class AA prep regional tournament semi-finals by flipping in five free shots in a second overtime period to stun Capitol Hill 49-44. Ronnie Skaggs topped the Knights with 15 points. Barney Barnett collected 13.

The 15-11 record for the season was not enough to sustain the Knights eager crew. The unsuspected Trojans flipped in three points that were the undoing of the Purple and Gold.

High point man of the year for the Knight Roundballers was senior Ronnie Skaggs. The team loses by graduation Ronnie Skaggs, Barney Barnett, Bob Lewis, Lloyd Johnson, Dick Johnson, Bill Karpenko, Tom Kingery, John Pryor, and Jim Seamans. The backbone of next years team will be returning lettermen Jim Daniel, Richard Glasgow, and Jim Smelser.

Jim Daniel jumps high above the heads of his Capitol Hill opponents to bring down a loose ball.

Wrestlers Wrangle 6 Wins—1 Tie

The Northwest Wrestling Knights have participated in 18 dual meets against 11 teams. They have also participated and placed in three tournaments. At the Geary Invitational Tourney the team tied Stillwater for fourth place, bringing home a first, second and two thirds. The Knights brought home four seconds and a fourth from the West Regional Tourney, in which the team placed fourth. During the State Championship we ranked sixth in the state, with Dick Littleton bringing home a second place, losing in the finals on riding time. Wally Curtis and Tim Butler brought back a third and a fourth place respectively. At this match Coach Leonard Marcotte was elected president of the Oklahoma State Wrestling Coaches Association.

Knights Capture Six Wins

The Knights scored wins over John Marshall, 34-10; Classen, 33-13; Muskogee School for the Blind, 36-11; Del City, 25-13; Harding, 28-14; Capitol Hill, 26-6; and tied Tulsa Rogers, 19-19. High point wrestler for the season was Tim Butler, who finished the season with 52 points. Wally Curtis and Tom Littleton tied for second place with 45 points each. Bill Gray followed with 30 points and Von Henry placed fourth with 25 points. These points were for matches wrestled in dual meets and tournaments and did not count byes or forfeits. Stan Harrison, 148 lb. freshman, won first place in the Jr. High Tourney at Edmond, March 9. Stan will be the only freshman to letter in wrestling and the first freshman to letter in this sport in the city.

Not all the time was spent in the fine art of wrestling, as Mr. Marcotte and his wrestling Knights proved. Several members of the team as well as Coach Marcotte had two over night camping and hunting trips and also took part in a 300-man wolf hunt staged in Harrah, March 10.

Perkins, team captain, placed second in the breast stroke. Jessie McDowell brought home a second in the back stroke. Nancy Roberts tied for third in the 20-yard free style and Judy McFarland took fifth in the back stroke. The free style relay team, Ann King, Nancy Roberts, Jessie McDowell and Mary Joan Perkins, took a second and the medley relay team took a fourth. On March 15, Mrs. Dennis took 15 speed swimmers and 2 synchronized swimmers to the state swim meet.

This Looks Like The Fun Has Just Begun

When this edition went to press Mr. Carroll Smelser, golf coach, was preparing to name the top 4 men of his golf team. The boys qualify for this by playing 54 holes, and the four with the lowest score are chosen. The golfers began their season March 21 with a City Round Robin Tournament, in which the Knights played each school in the city twice. In April they played in the Mid-State Tournament and on May 1 and 2 they participated in the State Golf Tournament. The golfers also met Ardmore, El Reno, Casady, Enid, and participated in the Amarillo Golf tournament, April 6.

Tennis Teams Tackle Tough Ones

At the date of the Round Table publication Northwest Classen's girls tennis team coached by Mrs. Barbara Dennis had seen action in only one tournament, held in Wichita Falls, Texas. The team will participate in tournaments in Lawton and Edmond, and April 25 and 26 in an all-city tournament. May 2, 3, and 4 will see the team at the state tournament in Norman, Oklahoma.

Sparked by four returning lettermen, the boys tennis team, coached by Mr. Paul Crowe, has shown beautiful form this season. In Wichita Falls, Texas, Roger Jack went to the quarter finals in singles play, and Randy Robins and Jim McFarland reached the quarter finals in doubles. The team is looking forward to tournaments in Norman and Stillwater, and an all-city round robin, March 25.

Jackie Gaumer explains inscriptions to be used on intramural trophies to Miss Kathleen Owen and Eric Sorenson.

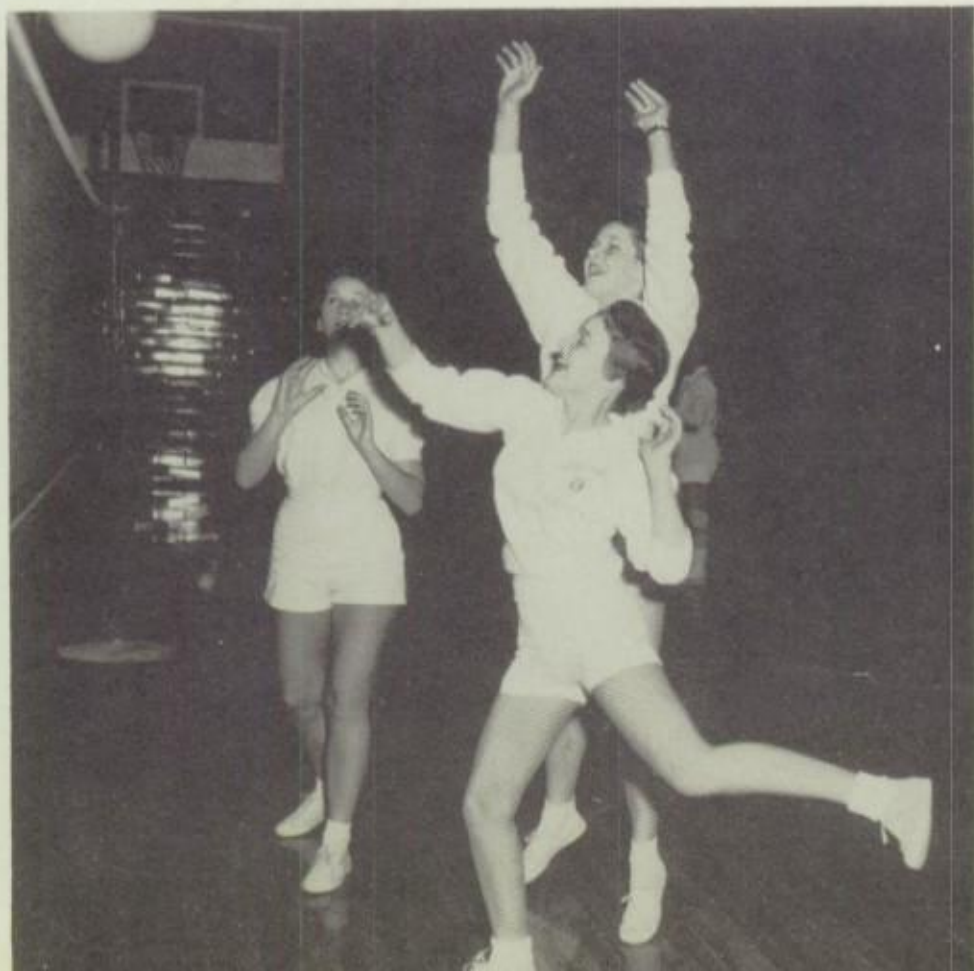

Intramurals Invite All To Play

Northwest Classen has one of the finest intramural programs in the state. Its success is due largely to the hard work of the director, Miss Kathleen Owen.

Intramural sports offer each student the opportunity to participate in an organized program of athletics and recreation. The intramural program provides facilities for such recreation and at all times fosters a spirit of fair play and sportsmanship among participants. Among the sports offered are volleyball, wrestling, basketball, bowling, table tennis, chess, badminton, swimming, track, tumbling, golf, and softball.

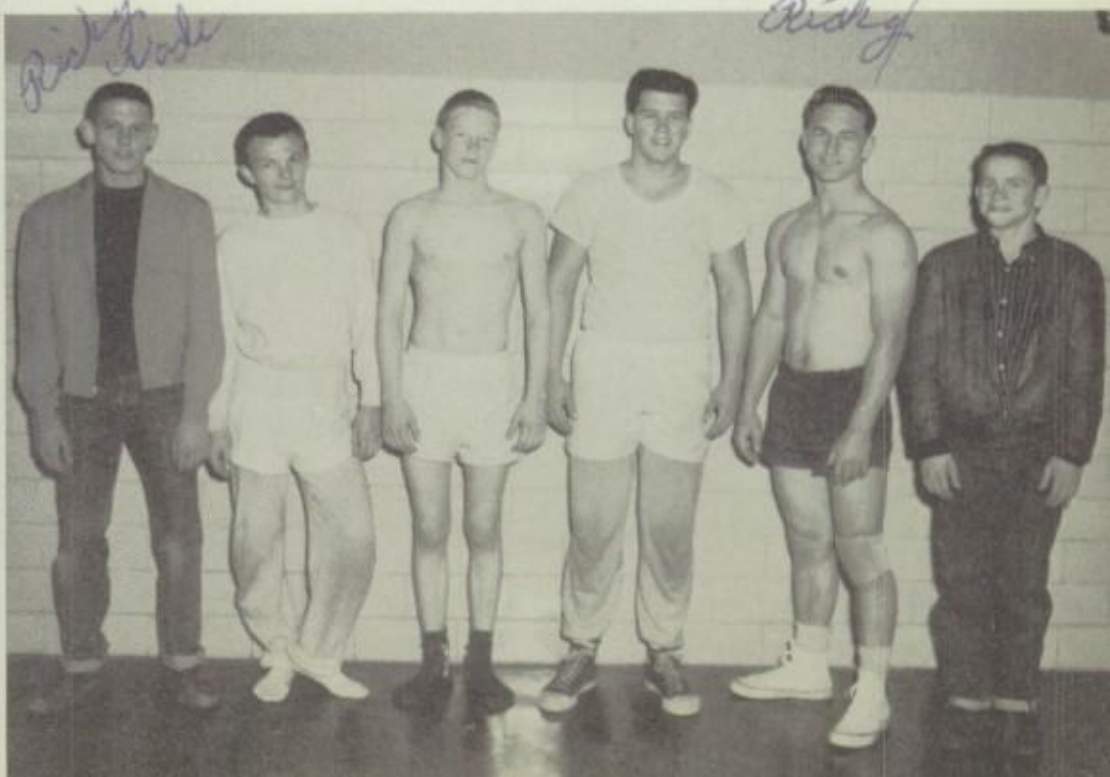

No person may play in a sport in which he or she has lettered or holds membership in the school team of that sport. In order for a student to participate in an intramural sport, he must fill out an entry blank and return it to the intramural box by the specified time and date. All winners are presented individual trophies in every sport.

Jan Dye and team mates return the ball to opponents during an intramural volleyball game.

Intramural wrestling winners are Gary Nixon, Norman Harkins, Allen Massie, Gary Starnes, Doug Cameron, and Jerry Wade.

All Spring Sports Are Really Fun

Northwest femme volleyballers return the ball to their opponents.

Sports techniques are developed for Northwest Classen girls as well as for boys in numerous fields of physical education. From the first of September until the last of May, girls engage in a program of well rounded sports. From the interest developed in physical education classes which are required in the sophomore year, many girls go on to attain recognition in sports fields. Volleyball, basketball, softball, tennis, swimming, table tennis, and badminton, are some of the popular sports that afford girls fun, exercise and competition.

Northwest Classen's lady roundballers shoved through a full schedule of matches to win 4 out of 6 games. Wins were Harding, 47-39; Douglass, 39-14; Capitol Hill, 45-31; U. S. Grant, 38-28.

The girls volleyball team came through with a 6-5 record, winning over Capitol Hill, Douglass, Central, U. S. Grant, Putnam City, and Casady.

Northwest Classen's girls softballers opened their season September 1, 1956 against Classen and won 27-8. Other games were against Douglass, Northeast, Central, and Capitol Hill.

Never let it be said that this seasons Table Tennis team lacked the capability to carry on to victory as in years past. Girls of the table tennis team are champions in their own right. Barbara Wendorff and Sharon Wade captured the City Doubles, and Beverly Stuemky and her partner walked off with the doubles in State Closed Tournament.

When the Round Table went to press the Badminton team had not yet started its season. The girls will see action in April at a City Tournament and at the State Tournament in May.

Pitchers Joe Melton and Paul Corter inspect a ball before a practice session.

The Knights began this baseball season with three successive wins. March 28 they played Enid, in Mid-State Conference and won, 1-0. March 29 the baseball team traveled to Amarillo where they batted against Pala Duro and won 7-4. Digby Sorenson made the only homerun and boosted himself to a top hitters station, along with Buzzy McDonald, Ronnie Skaggs and Rusty Higby. Pitcher Tom Belcher gave only six hits. March 30 the Knights slammed an 8-5 victory over the Amarillo High Sandies.

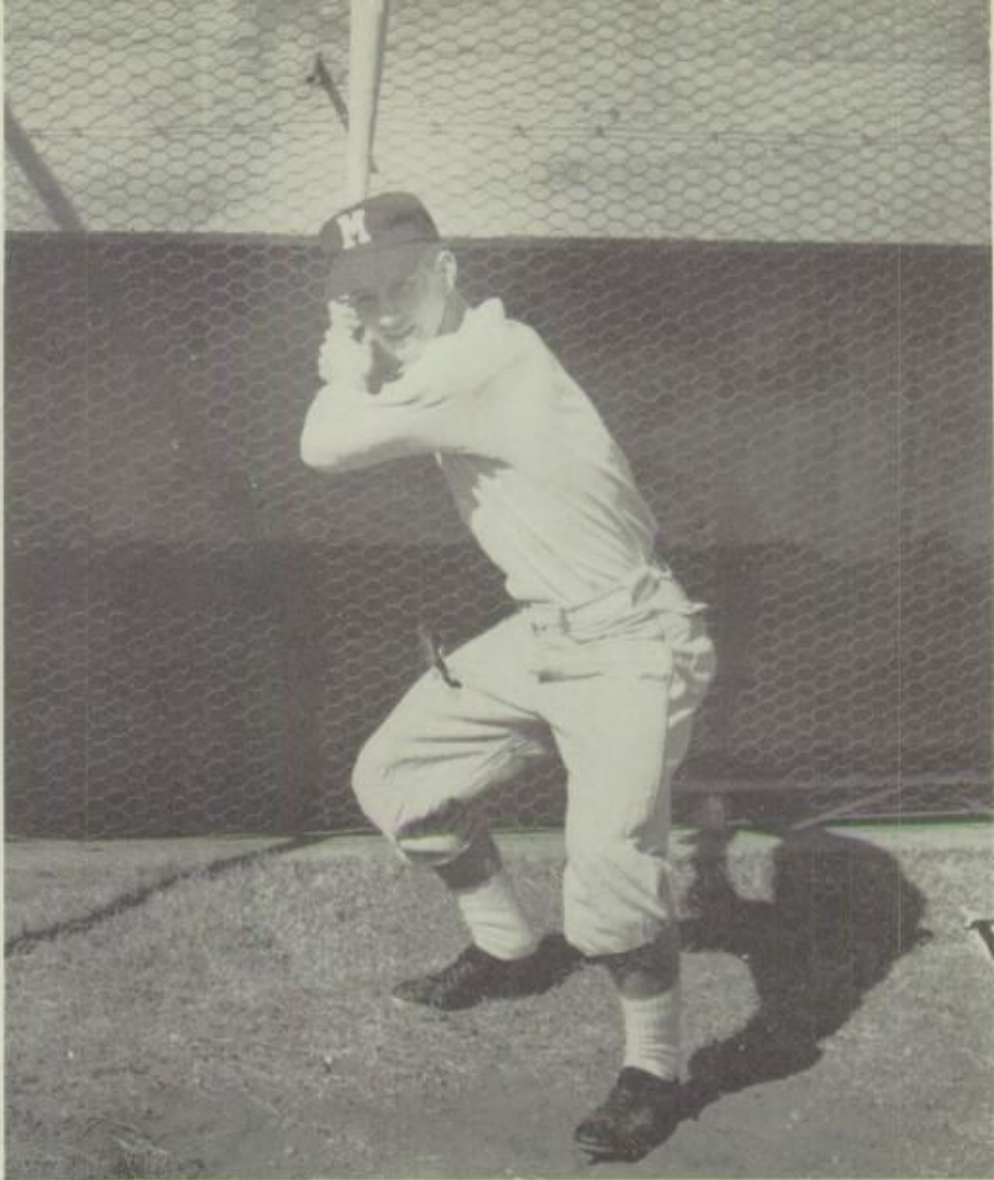

Top hitters were J. D. Reynolds and Joe Melton. Pitchers Jim Daniel and Carl Snelson gave up four hits to the Sandies. Later in the season the Knights play Capitol Hill, Douglass, Shawnee, Central, Northeast and John Marshall. April 18, 19, and 20 the team travels to Norman for the OU tournament.

1957's track edition, defending State champions, showed excellent promise in taking a second title at Mid-season. Although plagued with injuries, Knight thinclads ran to two wins and one lost in meets and a good showing at the Aggie relays.

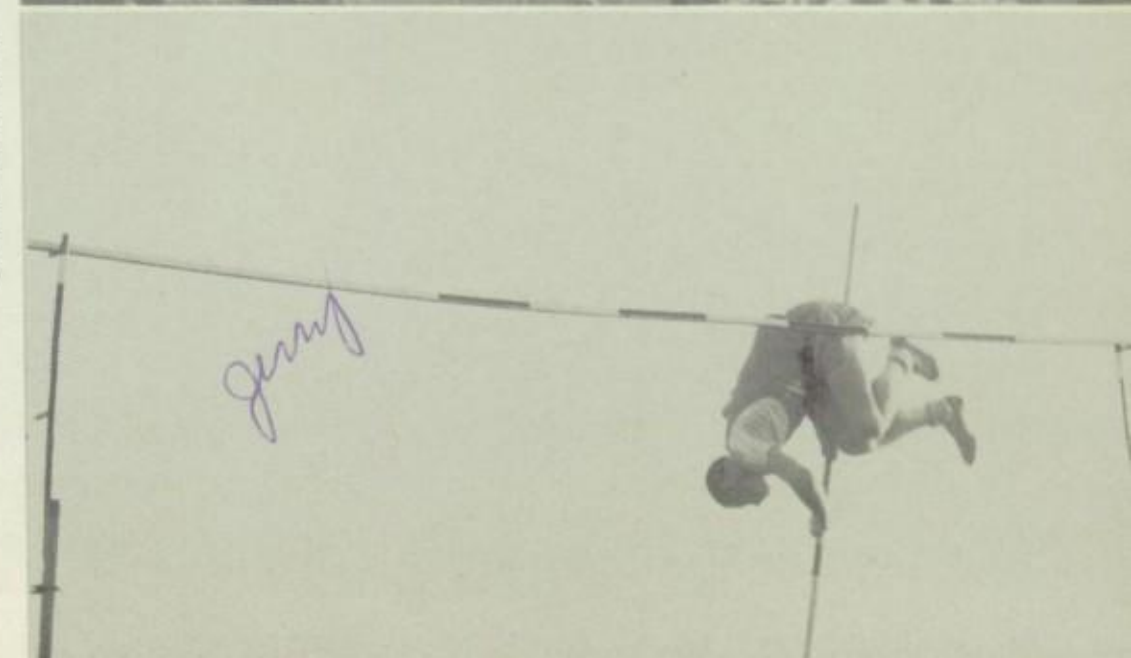

March 6, Northwest Classen played host to Chickasha and Harding in a triangular meet. Knights topped with 53 points to Chickasha's 48½ and Harding with 22½. At Capitol Hill March 12 the Knights pulled ahead to win 62½ to the Redskins 55½. Northwest Classen took eight first places in this dual meet.

Lawton's powerful Wolverines swooped to a 69-49 victory over the Knights in a dual meet March 19. At the Aggie Relay Previews, March 29-30, Northwest Classen's two mile relay team, Charles Fryer, Jim Mashore, Don Timberlake and Joe Groseclose took a second place and Jerry Thrower tied for third place in the pole vault.

Remaining in the season's schedule are seven meets: City; Bison Relays; Central State; Mid-State conference; Regional and State; and Oklahoma City Invitational. In the State meet of May 1956, Northwest milers, Joe Groseclose, Gary Pierce, Don Timberlake and Vernie Sanders won first in 3.27. Bob Cornell swept to a first in the low hurdles in 21.7 and second in the low hurdles.

Classen Awards

The CLASSEN MEMORIAL AWARDS honoring the late Anton H. Classen and his wife Ella D. Classen were established 30 years ago and 1956 marks the 304th winners. Originally there were ten awards given each year, including two MEDALS OF HONOR. With the coming of Northwest Classen two MEDALS OF HONOR were added and the CLASSEN AWARDS are shared between Classen High School and Northwest Classen High School students.

CLASSEN AWARDS are based on "outstanding promise of worthy contribution to the progress of the world by reason of strength of character, record of scholarship, activities of leadership and all-around achievement."

Student Council

President

September 4, 1956, brought 2,000 boys and girls together in one of the most beautiful schools ever constructed. It was these 2,000 students working together that wrote the second chapter in the annals of Northwest Classen High School. They did their job to the best of their abilities. How well, those following us will decide. You, the Knights of Northwest Classen, were challenged to make this beautiful building a vibrant, living school with a heart and soul. You accepted this challenge in a wonderful way, making our school a place of pride.

I have had the immeasurable blessing of being permitted to work, play and live with the finest student body ever. In parting, I say "God's richest blessings to you, freshmen, sophomores and juniors, in carrying the banner of the Knight's Kingdom."

Planning activities for the student body are the Student Council Officers Jim Clark, store supervisor; Ann Buck, historian; Wade McAlister, treasurer; Kaye Ferguson, secretary; Bill Karpenko, president; Mr. Jack Roblyer, advisor; Leslie Conner, vice-president and Peggy Dromgold, parliamentarian.

Candidates for Student Council President, Wade McAlister, Leslie Conner, Mike Brandon, Randy Robins and Bill Karpenko discuss procedures for the campaign.

Round Table Queen

Round Table queenship, accepted as the most important royalty at Northwest Classen, gave the student body its only chance to nominate directly in selection of candidates. Students holding publication packages were eligible to have a voice in this contest. Suspense was high since candidates were named in mid-December, but the winner was not announced until Round Table distribution time, May 15, 1957. Finally the moment of anticipation arrived when Julia Dorr was proclaimed queen by her escort-manager Roy Love. In token of her queenship, the journalism department presented her a bracelet. Other girls in the royal spotlight were Dayna Davis, Peggy Dromgold, Sally Dunaway and Olivia Nixon. The '57 coronation inaugurated the "SIGNATURE MIXER," a farewell to seniors which will become a journalism department tradition.

JULIA DORR

Sports Queen

Five girls were nominated by members of the Boys "O" Club for All Sports Queen. After a week of campaigning, poster parties and open houses, students who had purchased activity tickets went to the polls and selected Cindy Jones to reign as the 1956-1957 Queen. In a coronation ceremony November 9, 1956, Barney Barnett, President of the Boys "O" Club, presented Cindy with a loving cup and white coat signifying her queenship.

Other candidates were proclaimed Sport Princesses of various sports and were given loving cups as mementos of the occasion. Ruling over the respective sports were Judy Broach, football and golf; Beth James, track and wrestling; Janet Shields, basketball and tennis and Margaret Simon, baseball and swimming.

Grace and Charm Second to None

Choosing a queen is a hard task for any group. Many Northwest Classen "Ladies" possess beauty, charm, personality and grace, but not all can be nominated to a queenship. The custom is to nominate five contestants. These girls each conduct a campaign under direction of a campaign manager. Halls become suddenly festive with displays and slogans that shout why students should vote for a certain candidate.

Does a person have to break his leg to rate a ride? Mr. Thomas operates the elevator for these football casualties Bob Batten, Roy Love and Bob Cornell.

You'd Be Surprised at

Push hard, girls, make her fit. These locker happy episodes frighten some.

Poodles that don't make puddles make the student store popular.

Just to make sure that proctor Lela Fowler doesn't run out of subpoenas, Lloyd Johnson distributes a supply.

Don Timberlake, Bob Cornell and Charles Patterson gather for their daily gossip session.

Quiet! Geniuses at work. This quiet nook in the library is a resort for geniuses.

Was she insulted by that last joke?

the Things We Do

The music's not too good, but the company is great. These students spend their free moments in the Student Lounge.

It is hard to decide whether to buy an apple or an orange.

Julia Dorr, head cheerleader, and Jeanne Gonders emit lusty cheers around the bonfire.

Flame Plumes

"If you can't beat 'em, Join 'em," was Kay Ellison's philosophy when Bob Cornell was on crutches. Bob, unable to play in the Capitol Hill game, gave forth with vociferous support.

Decked out in purple and gold Bermuda outfits, a new item in the cheerleader's wardrobe are Janet Shields, Dayna Davis, Jeanne Gonders, Cindy Jones, Julia Dorr and Margaret Simon.

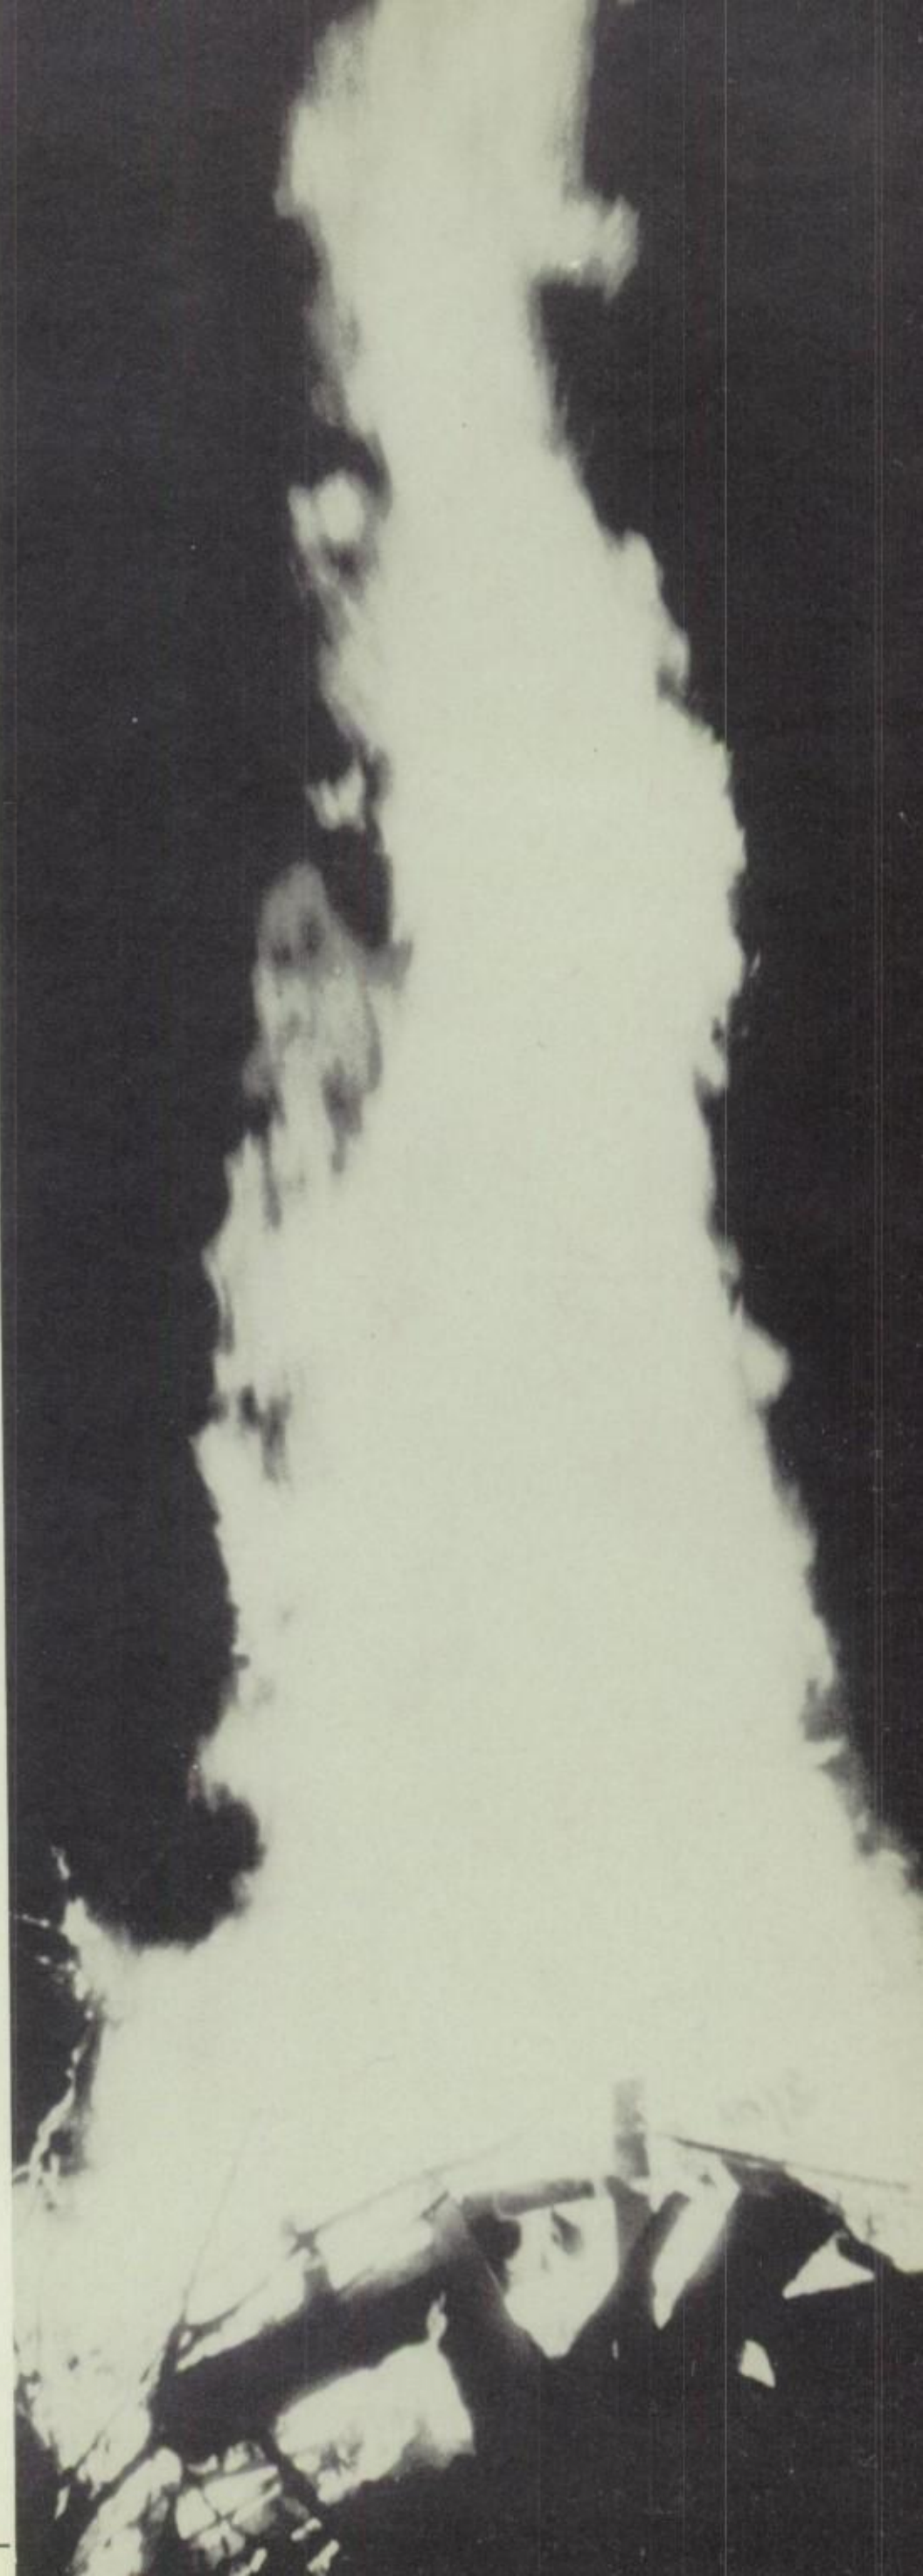

Watching the many activities of the gay bonfire are several of the football players Don Timberlake, Bill Gray, Kelly Gilbert, and Frank Bruner.

Zoom Skyward

"RIP THE REDSKINS" was the Knight's slogan during the week of the Capitol Hill football game. A tremendous fire climaxed the spirit-packed week of October 22, 1956. At this second annual bonfire in honor of the Football team, Barney Barnett, president of the Boys "O" Club was master of ceremonies. Activities of the evening started with a spectacular torch lighting the fire. At the conclusion of Coach Rex Irwin's pep talk, an hilarious snake dance wound around the bonfire. Basketball players were also to get a booming bonfire before their meeting with the ferocious Redskins. Like eager beavers, the students gathered wood diligently until the pile almost reached the sky. Then to add "fuel to the feud," the Skins jumped the gun and burned our supply. But the undaunted Knights gathered spunk to spark the fight, and built a fire that put night to flight.

Fire soaring skyward demonstrates our eagerness for victory over the Capitol Hill Redskins at the second annual bonfire.

Grads Kenny Burke, Patty Farmer, Vesette Edwards, Lavon Meyers and John Carleton attend the first Homecoming Party held November 9, 1956. This party in the Social Center celebrated the Knights victory over Seminole.

Who Said Folks

Nancy Bolls and Larry LaBlanc try some tricky new steps to the music of Red Rice.

"Put another nickel in." Music enthusiasts stampede the jukebox to select a favorite tune at the Cygnet Social.

Demonstrating how placid jitterbugging can be are Carol Childress and Jim Butterworth.

Jenny Everett and Larry Bolls let loose and really swing at the Girls' 'O' Club Backward Sockhop.

Don't Mix at Mixers?

Although this crowd is not dancing, they are having fun mixing, mingling, rubbing elbows, jostling and getting acquainted.

Getting acquainted with new members of the faculty and student body, Mr. W. H. Taylor, principal, and Miss Mary Pruitt, Mrs. George Brucher and Mr. Duane Weinert pause a moment to discuss our fine new plant with Mr. Ralph Ball, architect, and Mrs. Ball. Miss Pruitt sponsored the Million Penny Roundup, the funds which landscaped this popular center.

Our Mixers Are Merry

Jitterbugging fast and furiously Dixie Chapman and Don Sherwood have fun at the Girls 'O' Club Backward Sockhop.

Did Lucille just trump her partner's ace? Bridge seems to have more appeal to these knights than dancing.

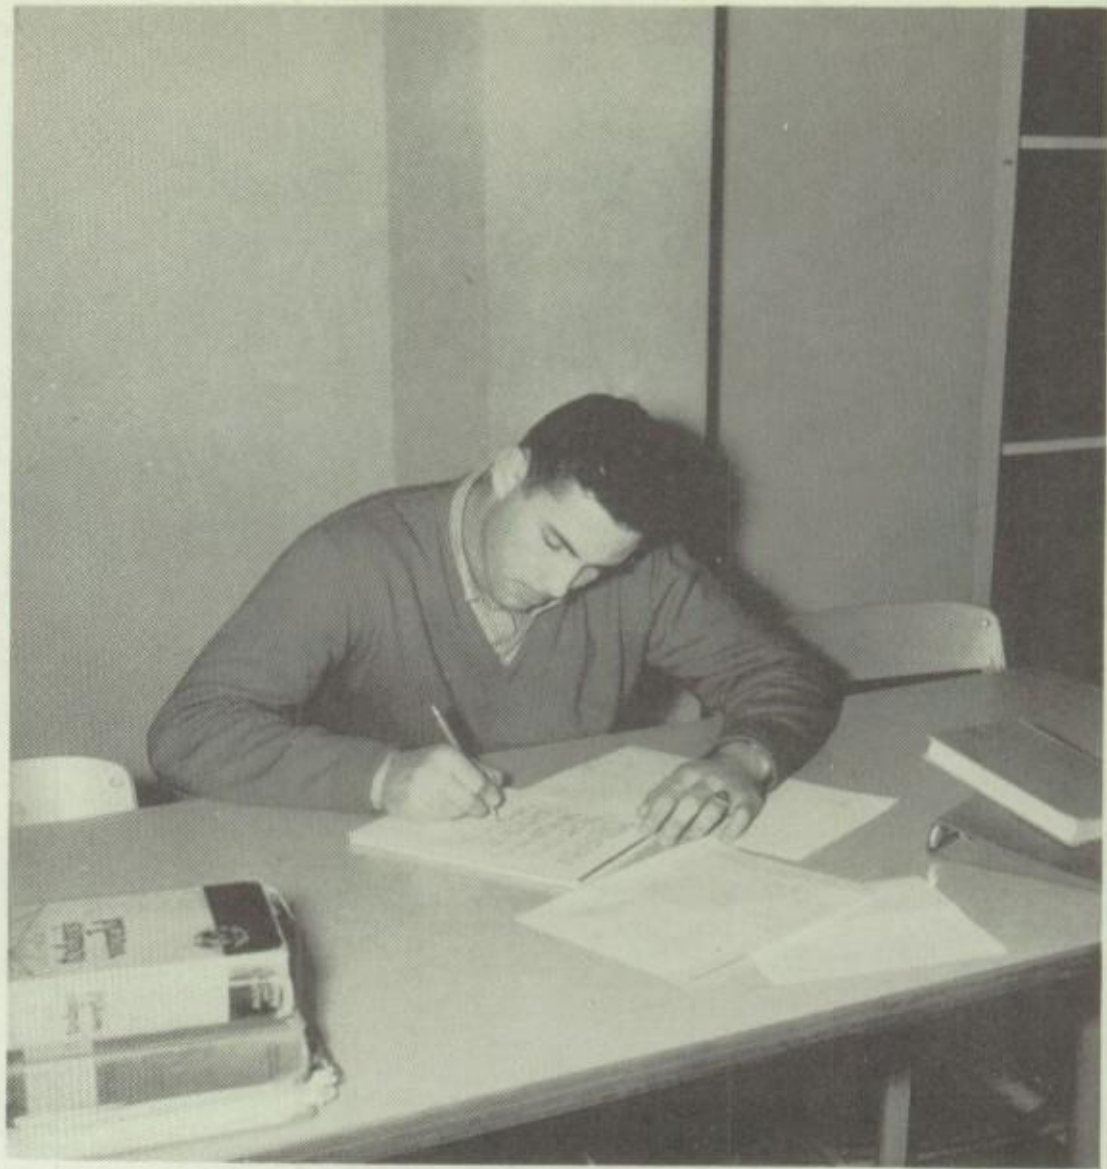

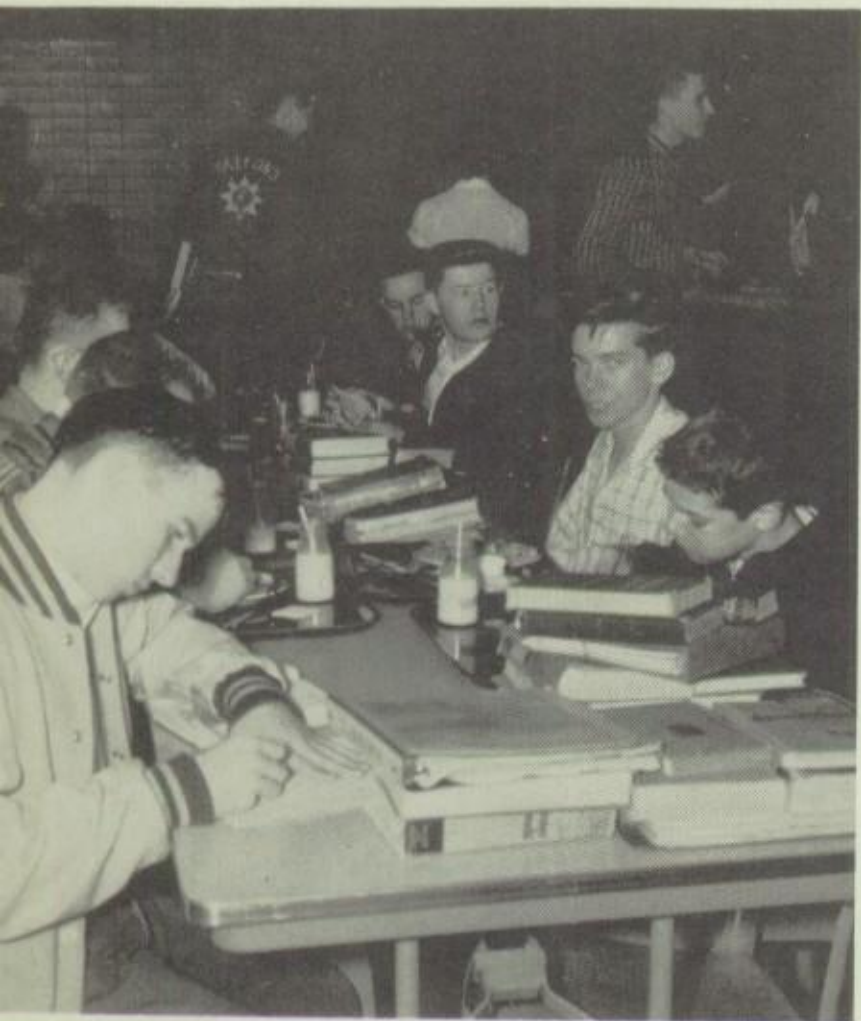

Did the punch at the Girl's 'O' Club Backward Sockhop need more "punch?"

"What's the Password?" Miss Willoughby asks Beverly Stuemky and Charles Fryer as they fumble for identification cards. Most students learn quickly that identification cards are necessary for gaining admittance into mixers.

Moments We Remember

"New Knights' Night." First mixer of the year promoted getting acquainted by an autograph contest between the Upperclassmen and the Lowerclassmen, for the most autographs.

Oh, Burn That Midnight Oil. Discovered cramming in the Student Council Room is Bob Cornell.

Frank Cissne and Fred Schoenhals play, "Away, with the trays!" in the cafeteria.

Can't see the food for the books on this cafeteria table.

A display of mixed emotions mark these Knights awaiting their turn to change schedules.

"Have You Heard the Latest?" You'll find these people discussing the daily news in the Student Council Room during the second lunch hour.

Who has a prettier tree than we? Student Council members annually display a tree for community enjoyment in our elaborate picture window. The wings of a life sized paper sculpture angel made by the art department can be seen through the branches.

How many of you knew it was Bill Ladd behind that satiny Santa Claus beard?

Fleeting Frolics

Goodwill Ambassadors Paul Duncan, Ken Brown, Mike Brandon, Allan Saxe, Pat Freeney and Jim Adams travel to New Orleans for a speech tournament.

Charge! It takes a lot of maneuvering to avoid being crushed in the cafeteria crowd eager to make the next class!

Princess of Football and Golf, Judy Broach and escort-manager Joe Groseclose, pay homage to Cindy Jones, newly crowned All Sports Queen. Presenting Cindy to her court are Barney Barnett, President of Boys' 'O' Club, and Eddie Bodenheimer escort-manager.

Coronations Are Festive Affairs

Presenting the traditional Queen's white coat to Nancy Newblock, '57 Proctor Queen, is Joe Kelso, chairman of the Proctor's Association. After introduction of the Queen, a social was held in the social center in her honor.

Barney Barnett, President of Boys' 'O' Club, crowns the Queen of Sports, Cindy Jones at the coronation ceremony held in the gym November 9, 1957.

Explaining a model of London's famous Globe Theater to the 1957 American Field Service Candidates is Ulla Vieweg, '56-'57 exchange student from Bremen, Germany. Jim Smelser, June Hulme, Carole Sue Sutton and Kent Miller, were nominated by the Northwest Classen faculty to apply for the summer program.

Like bending elbows with movie stars? We encountered a brief visit with Dale Evans and Roy Rogers while they made a Goodwill trip of Oklahoma.

Goodwill Flourishes with Ambassadoring

Margaret Simon and Kay Coulter help with the city-wide "Chip in for Polio" campaign. Mr. Hugh Scott publicity director of the Polio Foundation commends them.

"But my book couldn't be overdue."

No time for trifling as test time arrives.

but Time for Fun

Is there an Administrative directive that says, "NO LOAFING IN THE STUDENT LOUNGE?"

"This Was a Real Nice Clam Bake." In Act II, written and directed by Kaye Ferguson and assistant Lynn Christian, an old fashion Clam Bake is portrayed.

Presenting Our Second Annual Classics

Darling Dancing Dolls of Holland, Linda Marchman, Beth James, Jo Anne Kimball, Brenda Smith and Margaret Simon, captivate the audience with their personality and charm.

This year Classics found the unusual, the fabulous Bell Choir of Northwest Classen and St. Andrews Presbyterian Church. They chimed the tune for the Switzerland scene of Act III.

Paula Holiday and Ed Keller slave on their pet project, a world that will go round and round.

Working diligently on the horse heads for second act are several members of the stage crew, Ed Keller, Robert Leonhart and Leslie Pitney.

Classics is an all-student written and student produced project. As the final curtain closed on Classics '56, work began on this year's show with the careful planning of the Classic's Executive Board.

After this year's theme, "That Certain Something," was selected, the writing and continuity was entirely in the hands of the Act Directors, Mary Beth Baker and Carole Sue Sutton, Act I; Kaye Ferguson and Lynn Christian, Act II and Kay Ellison and Pat Mooney, Act III. Auditions, rehearsals, costume conferences and the untiring work of both the 325 members of the cast and stage crew form the nucleus of this show.

If at any time the act directors hit a snag, they may go to Mrs. Rose Marie Cherry, Mr. Ted Nichols and Miss Kathleen Owen who remain in the background. The tremendous financial success of this show is rewarding and the money is reinvested in the school.

"Now Ladies and Gentlemen, we present the circus lovelies, stars of the sawdust."

These "cut-ups" of the Cygnet Pep Club are raring to "butcher" their arch rival, Capitol Hill Redskins, in a pre-game pep rally. Two able bodied Redskins are taking a sneak.

Though Games May Be Lost

Ronnie Huffman, Monta Phillips, Paul Duncan and June Hulme dropped city duds and decked out in western regalia to celebrate annual Western Day at Northwest. (The one day each year when girls wear jeans).

A monstrous green dragon really dined delightfully on Eagles in the Girls 'O' Club pep rally before the Harding basketball game.

"Has anybody seen the fire-eating dragon?" Martha Clark frantically inquires of Barbara Wendorff.

Perky majorettes Carol Childress, Judy Ratliff, Gloria Tracy, Ann Dyksterhuis, Ann Hurst and Nancy Pickens, promenade at parades, pep rallies and games.

Dauntless "Ladies" (?) swarm forth from a Trojan Horse to deceive the unwary Douglass Trojans in a pep rally capers before the Knight-Trojan Football clash.

"Gonna Win By Golly! Gonna Win!" Students chant their cry for victory of the Capitol Hill Basketball game.

Spirit Never Dies

"Northwest Will Win Tonight." Members of the Cygnet Pep Club burst forth in song with high enthusiasm at a pep rally.

Under direction of Mr. Frank Vitale, a cappella choir presented Earl Robinson's "Lonesome Train" for our Thanksgiving assembly. Dramatic music that carried the dynamic plot narrated by Leo Wade and Dick Littleton was interpreted by accompanists Beverly Jenlink and Pat McCombs.

Dramatists Develop Poise

Members of the speech department are dauntless! On February 7, 1957, they presented William Shakespeare's Julius Caesar. And they did a fabulous job!

In a scene from Julius Caesar, Calpurnia, played by Paula Holiday, suspects that all is not well as the senators persuade Caesar to go to the Senate House.

and Confidence

"Really, if I don't look after him, he won't do a thing for himself. He is just a great big baby," says Mary Beth Baker as she administers medicine to Harry Hilburn, in Act II of "First Lady."

"I'm through, Carter, through, done, finished!" shrieks Mary Beth Baker at her husband.

"Why Mrs. Cheevy, you mustn't leave so soon," Carole Sue Sutton drawls as she urges Kay Ellison out of the room. Accomplices are Judy Carper and Edith Coats.

Bennie Benson, outstanding dramatic student, creates props to be used in presentation of Julius Caesar.

Members of our Student Council relax for a laugh, possibly at some remark of Bill Karpenko, (our beloved "Mad Russian") Student Counsel President.

A Year Ends With

Assistant Principal, Mr. Lloyd Estes accepts a plaque commemorating Bob Ramsey, our star basketball player killed by lightning late last spring. Mr. Frank Ramsey, Bob's father, received the plaque from the Boys 'O' Club President, Barney Barnett. The plaque was placed in the gym foyer.

Ann Butler, assistant Treasurer; Larry Taylor, Vice President; Linda Kennedy, President; and Mike Henderson, Treasurer of the once flourishing Million Penny Round-up Club that donated $5,000 to Cancer Research and $5,000 to landscape the patio, preside at the dedication ceremony of the Jackie Wright Memorial Patio, Spring of '56.

In token of the devotion and tremendous sacrifice of Mr. W. H. Taylor, first Principal of Northwest Classen, in making possible the fine school plant we are enjoying, Bill Karpenko, on behalf of the Student Council, presents Mr. Taylor with a Bible.

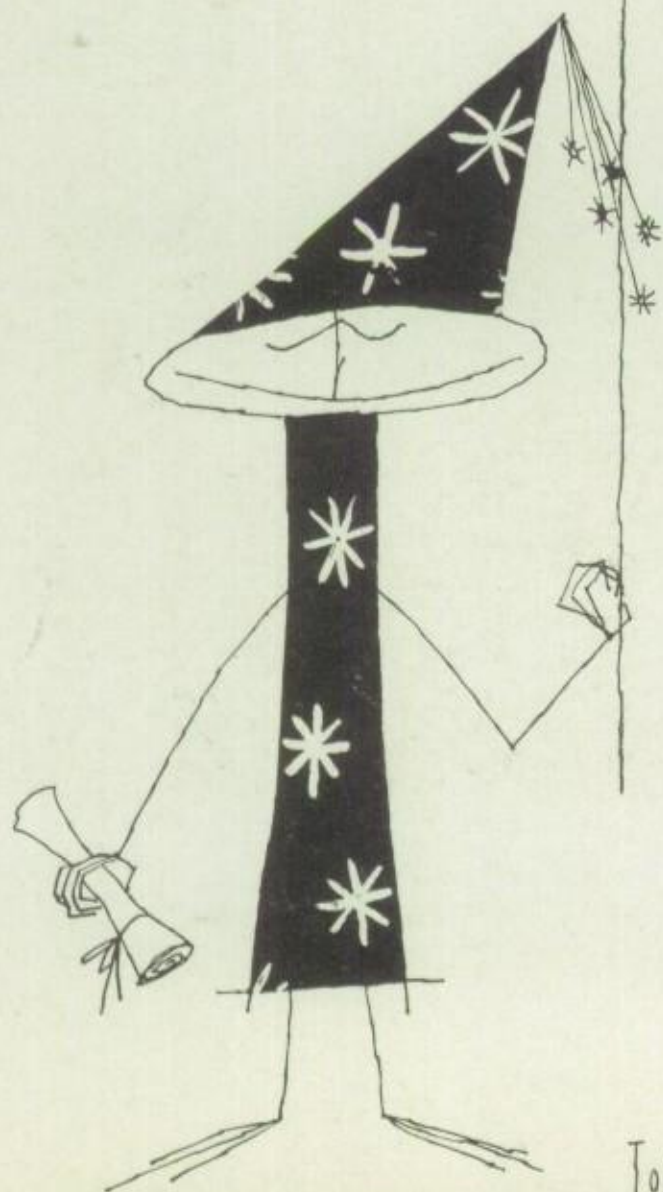

"We'll Remember Always Graduation Day." Hard work, happy times, school day friendships, pep rallies, ball games bonfires are all a part of that final reward, graduation day. Highschool days will be looked upon with fondness and joy forever.

Many Pleasant Memories

The first gathering of students in the new patio was to witness the dedication ceremony of the patio and the unveiling of the Jackie Wright Memorial Plaque.

from the original Classen. Gosh, so long ago—and yet, how vividly we recall maneuvering between paint buckets and plasterers.

Ducking around or through "Off Limit," "Closed to Students," and "Glass" signs. We clamored over boards, sloshed through mud, knocked down workmen, while hurrying to our classes that changed location so often we were never sure we were in the right one at the right time. We've watchd mud disappear under sidewalks, we've watched boards become buildings. It's been a grand two years. We never thought we'd ever see a school like this.

May our brief and maybe sometimes shallow footsteps in these hallowed precincts inspire others to carry on worthy traditions and aspire for ever higher goals.

HEY, FELLOWS! IT JUST DAWNED on me. We are Northwest Classen's new leaders! We're top dog after June 1, 1957!

Ours is the first class to have attended Northwest Classen all three years of our high school career. We were fortunate to have had a hand in the beginning of our school while we were sophomores. As juniors we designed a class ring which will be followed by future graduates. We hope this will be permanent bond between all alums and their alma mater.

Now, it's full steam ahead gang—we have one more year. Let's dedicate ourselves to becoming the BEST CLASS YET. We've had advantages no group before has known. Are you with me?

We foresee this homey balcony, sheltered from the sun and opening on the Jackie Wright Memorial Patio, as a focal point for future Knight activities. Here they may assemble for summer evening band concerts, outdoor dramatic productions, pageants, Sunday afternoon youth activities, inspired by the beauty of tall shade trees and soft greensward.

TOP TEENS

Don Strain and Jerry Montgomery.

SOPHOMORES HELD A UNIQUE position this year. Our sophomore year is our first in high school. While we adjusted to the situation we were setting an example for the freshman class.

We hope we have taken this responsibility maturely. Take a look at the sophomores in Classics, speech activities, on the newspaper and in student council. We feel we have proved our interest by actively supporting all the school functions.

Next year, we hope we will be able to assume the role of being juniors and upperclassmen, confidently and gracefully.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Bobby Nichols, Sergeant at Arms; Gloria Tracy, Vice President; David Howell, President; Mike Miller, Treasurer; Kathleen Schoenhals, Secretary.

PERHAPS DENIED THE PLEASURE OF being big ducks in the puddle, that has come to former Taft ninth graders, is offset by our having the '57 ROUND TABLE dedicated to us. The distinction of being the first freshman class in the annals of Northwest Classen has been a conscious part of our class activities this year.

We appreciate the courtesy that has been extended to us by all classes. We grin when recalling the signs, so courteously put up in the halls by upper-classmen, saying "Third floor this way;" "Escalator next floor;" "Just one more flight;" but best of all, "Welcome Freshmen." We smile when we think of how we tried to get directions to classes from seniors who weren't sure themselves where rooms were in their new school.

Yes, it's been a glorious year and we hope that next year we may be the guiding light to incoming freshmen.

A striking pattern of light and shadow complement one another in the appropriately Southwestern architecture of the front quadrangle of our building. Along this sweep of the plant is housed the administrative offices, classrooms, student activities center and the library.

Acknowledgments

As we prepare this final page of your 1957 ROUND TABLE we remember, with hearts filled with gratitude, the many kindnesses and helps that have been extended to us to help make this your best yet ROUND TABLE.

First the consideration and indulgence of the administration and faculty, for their demonstration of understanding and tolerance in arranging necessary picture schedules for class and group pictures and their cooperation in getting faculty pictures. No one but a veteran staff member can fully appreciate how much this means to the success of a book.

To the patience of the custodians, who let us into the building that we might work during school holiday sessions and didn't kick us out when night fell. This meant that we met that all-important date.—DEADLINE.

Student support of the Publication-Packet and general interest in having pictures taken for the class sections certainly gets a rousing, "THANK YOU, KIDS!" from all of us. We dared not do less than our best in return for your loyalty.

If there's one fellow we could not do without, it's Hal Owen. To his patience and understanding of our problems and excellent workmanship should go a large portion of the credit if the '57 R. T. rates any awards.

Let not the forbearance of those at SEMCO COLOR PRESS go unmentioned. They have bent over backward to try to do the impossible things that every staff wishes could be done.

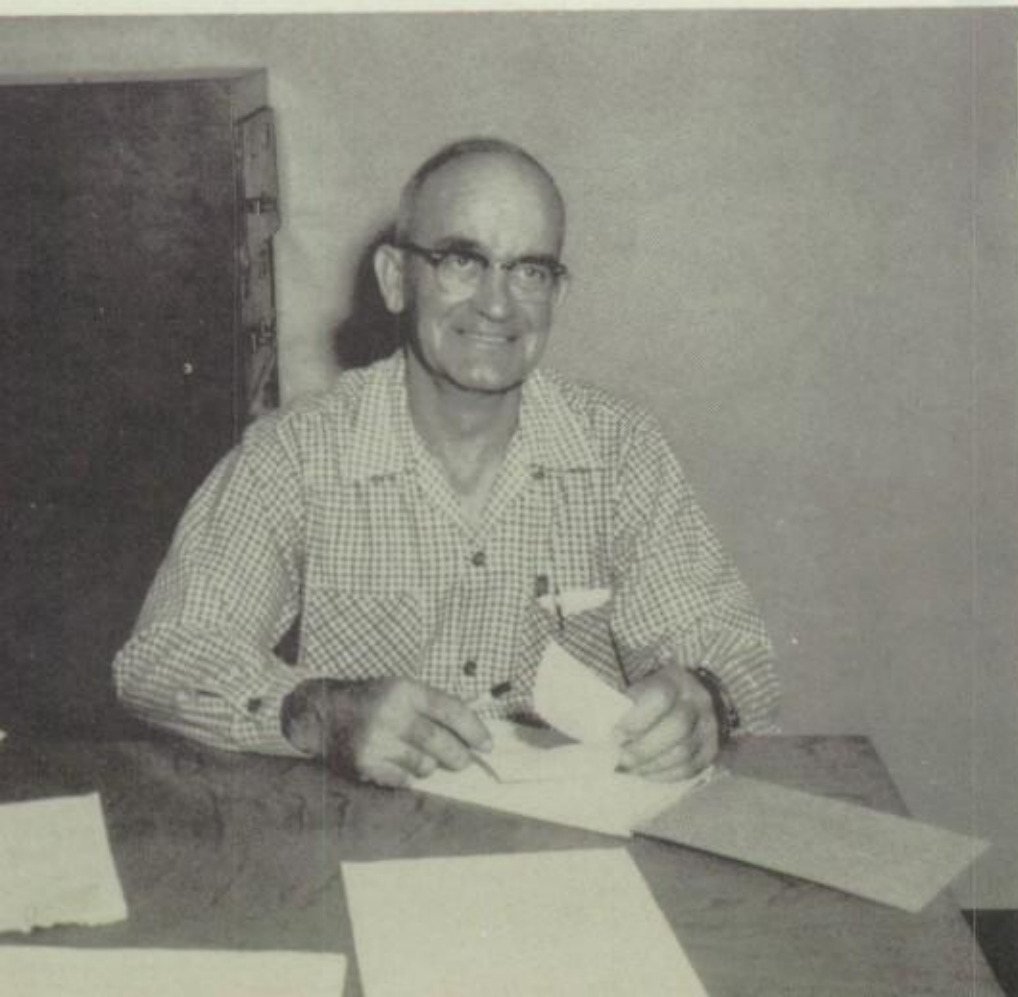

To Mary Lamb Lewis and Mrs. Winnie Murray of the art department goes a deep sweep of our plumes. We know Mary Lamb just won't let us make a misbobble in page balance, (if she knows about it.)

And a fond farewell to Mrs. Nevva Sartin, director of publications, who kept on our tails and had no mercy when it came to getting the job done. We owe a great vote of thanks to Mr. Clark Cunningham for his managing of the business side of the job and his distribution of the finished product. If we had that added to our routine of demands we doubt that we'd manage it.

As we write this, the nucleus of next years staff is planning next year's book. We are tenderly guiding them with all the know-how we have achieved, we wish them well. May they have the goodwill and best wishes from their associates that have marked our efforts.

Mr. Ivan Beeson, Head Maintenance Engineer. Have you ever considered what 'fixing things, oiling squeaks and keeping up a general apple pie appearance' at Northwest Classen entails. Mr. Beeson, with 16 helpers, keeps plugging from dawn to dark and even at that they frequently find themselves doing tomorrow, some of yesterday's chores.

Mr. Hal Owen has a second love—thorough-bred cattle. Here he relaxes from the tumult of kids tumbling in for pictures, with a highly prized animal from his herd.
